Teen-Agers Win Victory In Bid For Dance Space

Mill Valley Gives Approval If No Rows Are Reported

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Teen-age terpsichoreans won a victory from the Mill Valley City Council last night, being granted permission for continued use of the city's golf clubhouse for weekly dances.

Approval carried with it the clause that teen-agers must pay for any damage to the clubhouse, as in the past, and that a monthly report on activities be provided City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer.

Councilmen also issued stern warnings about teen-agers assuming responsibilities themselves. Mayor Michael Wornum said, "If you make a row and wreck the joint, that's it."

Dances sponsored by the Mill Valley Youth Council were discontinued last week at the hall by Balmer after custodians Mr. and Mrs. Warner Korreng reported they were unruly and had damagd the building.

Damage, according to an Oct. 1 report, included broken tables and windows, holes in walls and ceiling, and theft of outside lights. Too, beer, gin and vodka bottles were founud outside and in rest rooms after each dance, the Korrengs said.

Teen-age spokesman Jeff Mayer said it is "fairly obvious why we wish to use the clubhouse." The recreation center on Project 17 is at a standstill, he said. The dances provide three to four hours of entertainment for teen-agers. He asked the council that the clubhouse be opend for four dances a month.

He was applauded loudly by about 60 teen-agers present.

Wornum said he felt that the damage was not done by the majority of teen-agers, but "we have to punish the majority for the sins of the minority." He suggested the youngsters put money up to cover damages beforehand and then, in effect, police themselves.

Jack Benjamin, adult co-director of the youth council, said about $1,650 profit from the dances has been raised, for the recreation center. Wornum asked if it could be placed in city coffers. Benjamin replied the money is in an account at Bank of America.

Benjamin described table wreckage as a "gross exaggeration" and said he had hired a local contractor to take care of repairs.

Councilman Albert E. White said he is more concerned about the bottles found outside and in rest rooms after dances than furniture breakage. "This be-

Contractor Is Removed From Session

A patient and persuasive crowd of about 70 persons beseiged the Mill Valley City Council last night to ask that nine lots at the entrance to Blithedale Canyon be rezoned from apartment zoning to single family residential.

The council considered the matter from 10:45 p.m. until the wee side of this morning — interrupted frequently by an irascible heckler — and then, in this order: (1.) threw the heckler out; (2.) voted 4-1 to adopt an interim ordinance freezing the zoning at duplex density. The freeze is to be effective not more than one year. Councilman William Secor voted against it.

The Blithedale residents were armed with petitions signed by 389 persons. About 25 letters were acknowledged but reading waived since Mayor Michael Wornum said it would take 90 minutes.

Don Stevens, a building contractor who lives at 361 Eldridge Avenue, was one of the first speakers and, spasmodically, the most frequent. He said he favored the majority's mission — that the properties be rezoned to single family residential.

He spoke first standing on the dais, next to the mayor, then sat in the front row. Stevens complained that he couldn't hear the proceedings and later berated Councilman Albert E. White for making an argument while making his motion.

Wornum banged his gavel each time more loudly and at 12:37 a.m. requested City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer to send for the police. Sgt. Lee Seller responded and escorted the contractor from

Larkspur Grounds High-Rise Plans

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

The city fathers of Larkspur decided tentatively last night to tie their own hands hereafter on granting variances to the height limitation of the zoning ordinance.

At the same time, the council agreed to have City Atty. Robert W. Elliott give an opinion of exactly when a variance becomes so great that the ordinance should be changed, rather than a variance granted.

The suggestion for the ordinance change to "close the barn door" on high-rise buildings came from City Councilman Vaughn Marker, and drew opposition from City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper.

Piper claimed that any such restriction made little sense when the councilmen themselves could kick over the policy by merely changing the ordinance.

Marker's proposal came at a joint meeting of the city council, planning commission, and park and recreation commission. Planning Commissioner William G. Fleckles backed Marker's idea, saying the ordinance would put contractors and developers on notice that no more high-rise developments would be allowed.

Marker said the new ordinance could do one of two things. It could require that the council grant no variance at all on height, or it could set a limit on the amount of variance that

Mrs. Johnson Is Off On Whistlestop Tour

COMBINED AP & UPI

Campaigning continued hot and heavy around the country today with Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson launching her whistlestop tour of the South, San. Barry Goldwater in Pennsylvania, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in St. Louis, Mo., and Rep. William E. Miller going into the South for the first time.

Mrs. Johnson launched her tour with a quotation from Robert E. Lee and urged Virginians to forget differences over civil rights and seek a unified nation.

With President Lyndon B. Johnson at her side, the first lady recalled to a crowd at her first stop in Alexandria, Va. — not far from Lee's Arlington home—the advice of the Confederate general to Southerners after the Civil War to "abandon all these local animosities and make your sons Americans."

To this, Mrs. Johnson added her own advice, urging fellow Southerners to seek "the ties that bind us together, not settle for the tensions that tend to divide us."

The president climbed aboard the Ladybird Special for the start of his wife's 1,682-mile foray into the South and rode with her to the first stop just across the Potomac River.

Several thousand persons swarmed alongside the train in Alexandria. The crowd was enthusiastic and noisy, but there were a few unfriendly signs.

There were also a few Goldwater signs. But any heckling was drowned out by friendly cheers.

Goldwater, campaigning in Philadelphia's suburbs, declared today that "minority groups run this country."

The Republican presidential nominee resumed his campaign in an address before a crowd of several thousand at a shopping center in Warminster, Buck County. He said in his statement about minorities he was "speaking about all minority groups" that operate through paid lobbyists or use other pressure tactics.

"I think the American people are getting sick and tired of it," Goldwater said. The Arizona senator said this after asserting that many Americans are mistaken "as to what the issues are" in the presidential campaign.

The senator told his Warminister audience:

"The issue in the campaign, frankly, is a very simple one: What kind of America are we going to have tomorrow, five

Bay Permit For Hydrofoil Is Requested

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Henry E. Carter, a Chicago businessman, asked the California Public Utilities Commission today for permission to operate a hydrofoil passenger boat service on San Francisco Bay.

He said he had available five 23-passenger hydro-foils capable of 35 mph, similar to 14 now operating in New York. Next year, Carter said, he hopes to have three new models capable of carrying 48 passengers and reaching 50 mph.

Carter, who asked a public hearing be held, planned to serve numerous points from Vallejo to Palo Alto on a regular schedule.

He said it is too soon to determine what prices will be, but that they probably would be between $1.50 and $1.90 for San Francisco - Oakland, between $2.25 and $3.00 for San Francisco-San Rafael, and $3.50 to $5.50 for San Francisco-Palo Alto.

Chief Sets Up Firehouse In Apartment

One fireman is stationed there 24 hours a day and the fire truck is kept in the stall, normally holding passenger vehicles. The apartment was rented yesterday, Fire Chief Herbert Owen said, after Freethy Co. demolished the Poplar Street bridge, thus cutting off immediate fire access to one part of the valley. The cost is $150 per month.

It gives the department three firehouses, one in Homestead Valley and two in Tamalpais Valley.

Owen said that County Supervisor Peter H. Behr has agreed to try to get reimbursement from the county for the expense since, according to Owen, the understanding was with the county that Poplar Street bridge would not be torn out until one of the other nearby bridges was replaced. Seven of the eight bridges across the creek have been removed for the flood control project.

County Asks Regulation Of TV Antennas

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today voted to request the legislature to give the California Public Utilities Commission jurisdiction over community television antenna systems.

The county in the past has issued encroachment permits for cables of such systems to be strung on utility poles along county roads. It has received a request for a franchise for a community TV system. Similar requests are before several city councils.

Supervisors said the county has neither the staff nor the technical ability to regulate the systems, and voted unanimously to ask the legislature to put them under state juridiction.

Moscow Says Four Spied On Train Trip

Britisher, Four Yanks Are Accused

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union today accused three American military attaches and a British Navy officer of spying during a train trip across Siberia from Moscow to Vladivostok. It hinted they might be expelled.

They were the same four aides that Washington and London had charged were mistreated by Soviet officials. The Kremlin rejected the Anglo-American protests today.

SEPARATE NOTES

In separate notes to the American and British embassies here, the Soviet Foreign Ministry admitted the officers' belongings were searched in their hotel rooms in the Far Eastern city of Khabarovsk, but it charged the four had "engaged in spying."

U.S. and British diplomats rejected the Soviet counter-charges and said the Russians searched the attaches and seized cameras, films, notebooks and a transistor radio in violation of their diplomatic immunity.

PHOTOS, NOTES

The Soviets charged that the attaches took 900 photographs and filled 26 notebooks with "espionage" date while traveling on the trans-Siberian railway from Moscow and Vladivostok.

The Soviet notes called the officers' actions "incompatible" with their diplomatic status, the official Soviet Tass news agency said. It said the Kremlin "reserves the right to return to the question of the possibility of the further stay of the diplomatic officials in the Soviet Union."

Accusd were Col. George Aubry, 47, of Annapolis, Md., the U.S. Army attache to the embassy, and two assistant Army attaches, Lt. Col. Karel R. Liewer, 40, of Osmond, Neb., and Maj. James F. Smith, 41, of Meers, Okla. The accused British attache is Lt. Cmdr. Nigel N. Laville.

(The four officers were on a journey to Japan and Hong Kong and had obtained Soviet approval for the trip across Siberia. They reported the incident to officials in Tokyo on their arrival there.)

San Rafael Council Votes Trial; Chief Chiesa Urged To Get Tough

In an effort to make San Rafael's Grand Avenue less of a "raceway," the city council last night voted to place stop signs on Grand at Jewell Street, Mountain View Avenue and Linden Lane, on a six-month trial basis.

The Jewell Street intersection will have a four-way stop sign arrangement.

Councilmen also urged Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa to urge judges to apply stronger punishment to chronic traffic violators.

Mayor John F. McInnis said the stop signs had been urged by "another Grand Avenue delegation" that visited him yesterday. Several residents of the street attended the Sept. 21 council session and complained hotly about "raceway" conditions there.

McInnis said the group also had urged stop signs at three points on Mountain View Avenue, but councilmen declined to act on these without further study.

Told that one Grand Avenue citizen plans to take license plate numbers of the worst offenders, councilmen asked Chiesa what he had done so far to control the problem.

Chiesa said his department had been given one license number, but he did not say whether any arrest had followed.

He said a planned conference with judges had not been held yet, awaiting the return of one judge from vacation.

"When you do have that meeting," commented Councilman Harry A. Barbier, "take them downstairs (police headquarters) and show them the records where some of these youngsters have 19 to 20 traffic convictions, but still keep getting the same light sentences.

"It is frustrating, both to us as the council and to the individual policemen trying to do their jobs."

Only public comment was in the form of a letter signed Joseph Michaels, which gave no address. (The city directory lists no Joseph Michaels). It charged that "San Rafael is fast becoming the laughing stock of Marin County," and "traffic violators are allowed to get away with murder in this city."

It also rapped Chief Chiesa, saying, "San Rafael needs a police chief who is fearless and aggressive and it goes without saying that the present chief lacks these qualities."

Chiesa, however, contended "we are sitting good as far as enforcement is concerned." He insisted the greatest problem has grown from gentle treatment meted out by the courts.

Fire Danger Still Exists, Bloom Says

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom told Marin County supervisors today there is still a high fire danger in Marin.

Bloom commented after supervisors passed a resolution commending the county fire department for its outstanding efforts in the recent Black Canyon fire in San Rafael and its aid in fighting fires in Sonoma and Napa counties last month.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr asked Chief Bloom to comment on the fire situation. The chief said it is critical and will remain that way until the first rainfall.

A major blaze such as that in Sonoma County could have struck Marin during the high temperatures and low humidity last month, Bloom said.

Chairman William A. Gnoss said that a stronger effort must be made to have brush and dry grass cleared away from homes.

Behr suggested that there be a fire prevention check of older homes when they are sold, and requested the county administrator's office to see if suck a check is feasible.

Saigon Discloses Opening Fire On 3 North Villages

SAIGON (UPI) — The government disclosed today its troops opened fire in three northern villages Sunday and yesterday on anti-government demonstrators armed with grenades and machineguns. It said eight civilians were killed and 35 wounded.

A Defense Ministry statement said the Communist Viet Cong instigated the roits and used innocent civilians as "human shields" against the government soldiers. The incidents occurred in Quang Ngai and Phu Yen provinces 330 and 240 miles northeast of Saigon.

Military observers said the incidents appeared to be the start of a new Viet Cong strategy aimed at turning the civilian populace against the Saigon government. It coincided with reports of increased anti-American sentiment in the north.

Fighting Mars De Gaulle's Visit

CORDOBA, Argentina (UPI) — Police and Peronists clashed in a gun battle in Sobremonte Square today where thousands massed to give visiting French President Charles de Gaulle a frenzied welcome. Several persons were wounded.

DeGaulle and his host, Argentine President Arturo U. Illia, were on the other side of town when the shooting broke out in front of the Palace of Justice.

Twenty minutes after the gun battle ended, de Gaulle, Illia and Mayor J. Martinez arrived at the Justice Palace for lunch with State Gov. Justo Paez Molina as scheduled. Their limousine was heavily guarded.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Navy Gunfire 'Deficiency' Noted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's top Marine said today there is "a deficiency" of naval gunfire to support over-the-beach landings and "remedial action is essential."

Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., Marine Corps commandant, discussed what he called a "gun gap" with the Associated Press following indications that the Navy is studying how to beef up its shore bombardment capability.

Greene

Not much has been said publicly, but both the Marines and the Navy amphibious forces are concerned that capability has been reduced by the switch from conventional guns to missiles.

Greene said that "any further reduction in the naval gunfire support means would materially affect the ability of landing forces to successfully force a landing against a defended beach."

Tshombe Lands, Put Under Arrest

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI) — Congo Premier Moise Tshombe landed in Cairo today in defiance of official orders to keep him out. But he was soon under virtual house arrest.

Tshombe

Egyptian officials formally admitted the controversial African leader when he flew in before dawn on an Ethiopian commercial airliner after being barred from landing yesterday.

He was escorted from the airfield to a guest palace in the Cairo suburb of Heliopolis. But it was questionable whether he would be able to attend the current summit meeting here of 64 "non-aligned" countries.

Egyptian guards stationed around the palace said they had orders not to let anybody out or in until further notice.

Redistricting Battle Shapes Up For State

Unruh Predicts Action During 1965 Legislature

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A Senate-Assembly squabble over reapportionment may provide some of the flashiest fireworks of the next legislative session.

Fuel was added to the controversy recently when Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh said, in a Santa Monica speech, the state Senate "will be reapportioned in the 1965 legislative session."

The Los Angeles Democrat said that under the present setup senators "representing 5 per cent of the population can halt an appropriation bill desired by 95 per cent of the people."

SEES TEXT

Sen. Edwin Regan (D-Weaverville), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee said:

"Any reapportionment of the state Senate will lie with the state Senate."

Regan wouldn't comment directly on Unruh's statement until he had seen the text of the speech, but added:

"The Senate is looking into all phases of reapportionment with a select committee studying various proposals.

"But," he said, "this doesn't mean any one of the reapportionment proposals will be done."

ONE MAN'S VOTE

Unruh said he was concerned with "abridgement of political rights in which one man's vote may be worth only 1-500th as much at the polls as the vote of another man who lives a few miles away in a different jurisdiction across an imaginary line."

Regan, however, said he has been assured during a recent trip to Washington that U. S. Sens. Pierre Salinger (D-Calif.), and Thomas Kuchel (R-Calif.), would work for a constitutional amendment on reapportionment when Congress reconvenes.

Regan said Salinger and Kuchel told him they saw a need to maintain the system of checks and balances within state legislatures.

'SENSE OF SENATE'

"The sense of the Senate" resolution adopted by the upper chamber shortly before adjournment, Regan said, "indicates Congress is concerned" about the U.S. Supreme Court ruling that both legislative houses must be based on population.

The resolution, later dropped in a House-Senate conference, called for a delay of six months on all reapportionment matters in the federal courts.

The California Senate may well use this resolution as grounds for delaying any action on the state level.

The reapportionment squabble is nothing new to Californians. In 1960 and again in 1962 reapportionment proposals were beaten down by the voters. In both instances the measures called for increasing the membership of the Senate with the urban areas picking up the additional representation.

XB-70 Second Test Success

EDWARDS AFB (UPI) — The controversial six-jet XB-70 flew for the second time yesterday and its performance apparently lived up to almost all expectations.

The 1.5-billion-dollar plane, forerunner of future supersonic airliners, soared almost effortlessly for 90 minutes with test pilot Al White at the controls.

No attempt was made yesterday to push the revolutionary craft to its design maximums of 2,000 miles an hour and an altitude of 80,000 feet.

WHO WON DEBATE?

George, Pierre To Let Voters Decide

"Obviously, you can't pin him down," Salinger told newsmen last night after debating everything from Vietnam to California's water supply.

But Murphy called the debate exciting and said he would leave it up to the voters to declare a winner. Salinger said he would, too.

The hour-long contest was carried statewide on seven television and six radio stations.

The pair are scheduled to debate again Oct. 17 in a non-televised forum sponsored by the Los Angeles Times.

1. Secretary of State Udall had agreed to restore a 10 per cent cut in California's Colorado River water supply. Salinger later told newsmen he meant restoration only to the Los Angeles Metropolitan Water District.

2. After the election, Sen. Warren Magnusen (D-Wash.), chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee, will hold hearings in California "on the whole complex of the aerospace industry and the defense industries in California."

After the debate Salinger disclosed that Controller Alan Cranston has been named state chairman of the Salinger campaign executive committee. Salinger added Cranston has dropped the 2-million-dollar libel suit filed against him and three others during the primary campaign in which the controller unsuccessfully opposed Salinger for the Democratic nomination.

A hot state political topic—Proposition 14—was avoided by both Murphy and Salinger during the debate in Los Angeles. But afterwards, Murphy told newsmen he definitely will not take a stand on the highly controversial housing issue.

Salinger has declared he will oppose the proposition, even if it costs him the election.

During the debate Salinger called for a water program that would draw supplies to the West from as far away as the Yukon River. Murphy countered that California's water shortage could be solved by a crash program of desalinization of Pacific Ocean water. He said such a desalinization program is working out well in Israel.

In other areas:

Murphy said more jobs would be created in California in one could "take the government out of competition."

". . . We have been worried very badly by unemployment on a national basis," said Murphy, "and lately it seems that the best suggestion that has come up will be some sort of a CCC camp . . . it worked temporarily (in the 1930s), but it wasn't really successful."

Murphy said many areospace-electronics industry contracts were going out of California "many of them going to Texas, some of them going to Massachusetts."

Salinger called Murphy's statement "a cynical misstatement of the facts, because they were not contracts which have been taken from California.

"The contracts which are in Texas and Massachusetts are space contracts, NASA contracts. California today gets more than 50 per cent of all space contracts allotted by the United States government."

At another juncture, Salinger said that if the rules of the executive branch applied to Congress, Rep. William E. Miller (R-New York), the GOP vice presidential candidate would today be subject to a jail term for representing the interests of the Lockport Felt. Co. on the floor of the United States Congress while a member of Congress."

Salinger's comment came after Murphy asked him why he had voted against reopening the Bobby Baker hearings. Salinger said he had voted to send the investigation "to the Senate Rules Committee where it properly belongs."

Asked by Salinger how he would have voted on medicare-hospital care for the aged financed through social security, Murphy said he would have voted against it. Congress adjourned this session before a vote could be taken.

Christian Prayer Plan Is Approved

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council voted approval today of an unprecedented new program of common prayer anr public meetings between Roman Catholics and other Christians.

The council agreed that Catholics everywhere must undergo a "conversion of heart" toward others to further the goal on Christian unity.

Council fathers meeting in St. Peter's Basilica also approved a declaration that the church must be ready to reaffirm itself where errors may have occurred, and another declaration that Catholic teachings — both for priests and laymen — must conform to the principles of the Christian unity movement "to keep minds open to others."

Approval of these measures came in voting on the second chapter of the schema "de oecumenismo" (on unity), a fundamental goal of the council.

Passage of the provisions in the chapter, the second of three in the schema, was another major triumph for forces within the church working to overcome the barriers that have divided Christians for centuries.

Spread Of Nuclear Weapons Predicted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said there is no question but that "tens of nations" could have nuclear weapons and the means of delivering them in another 10 or 20 years.

This grim prospect will result, he said, from an expected dramatic drop in the cost of making warheads.

The proliferation of nuclear weapons "is one of the great dangers that we face and must continue to act to reduce and prevent," McNamara said.

His views were expressed in a recorded interview with reporter Irving Kupcinet. It was televised by a Chicago station on a midnight show over the weekend.

The Pentagon provided a transcript on request.

McNamara said the cost of nuclear warheads today ranged from $590,000 to one million dollars each, but would "fall dramatically" in the years ahead.

McNamara said that Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, supreme commander in Europe, could use nuclear weapons only on orders from President Lyndon B. Johnson.

That appeared to be an implied, if not explicit, denial of claims made in published reports and in the Republican camp that Johnson had delegated authority to Lemnitzer.

McNamara contended that Gen. Lauris Norstad, former supreme commander, had lately eliminated confusion on the point in an interview with U. S. News and World Report magazine in which he said that there was no provision for automatic use of nuclear weapons in Europe and that they could be used only on presidential order.

Discussing the war in Vietnam, McNamara said that if American forces operating in international waters or air space are attacked, they will pursue the attackers and destroy them.

That would be done, he said, "even if it means going over North Vietnamese air space."

San Rafael Moves For Aged Housing

The San Rafael City Council last night took the first, halting steps toward building a 10-unit housing project for the elderly—but hinted strongly the matter may be put to a vote of the people.

Councilmen handed the plan first to City Atty. David Menary Jr. to sniff out legal problems, and Mayor John F. McInnis urged that the city have a "typical unit" designed in great enough detail that voters could be given accurate facts and figures on exactly what the plan would offer and how much it would cost.

Councilman Charles W. Aby, who headed the three-man committee which researched the idea, again spelled out its tentative plan, under which nine or 10 units, 550-600 square feet apiece, would be built on city-owned land at Fourth and Union streets. Aby said it was hoped the units could be rented for $60 monthly, and that this could bring a net income of $140 each month after maintenance costs were subtracted.

Such income, he added, could go toward amortizing the initial cost, earlier estimated at $65,000 for nine units.

Aby urged the city authorize design of the units "to see how close we come to the costs as proposed," but Councilman Fred E. Jensen retorted:

"I think the people should vote on it."

McInnis agreed, but said he hoped the city could give voters "a comprehensive concept of what is proposed" before they vote.

Taking an oblique pot-shot at County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, whom he is opposing for a seat onthe board of supervisors in the Nov. 3 election, McInnis added:

"I don't want this to be a political football, but unfortunately there are those who keep wanting to make it so."

Leydecker recently blasted the city for its refusal to approve placing proposed county housing project (subject to approval in the Nov. 3 election) in San Rafael.

The council awarded the contract for street widening and installing traffic signals between Mary and Union Streets, latest phase in the Third Street extension project, to Maggiora, Ghilotti and Madsen of Corte Madera. The firm's bid of $55,441.94 was lowest of those submitted by four bidders.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

1. Agreed to have several major manufacturers of parking meters send samples of their products for trial use when double decks are completed on two municipal parking lots. The type of meter now used by the city is no longer made, and another company has offered to provide up to 150 meters for a six-month free trial. City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen also urged consideration of a manned time-clock system in place of meters on the new top decks.

2. Voted 4-1, with Aby dissenting, to pay $500 for re-seeding grass in a 300-acre area which recently burned in Black Canyon. Aby insisted it would be $500 down the drain" when the first rains wash the seed away. Others felt it was worth a try.

3. Extended the agreement with Marin County under which the county pays half the cost of the lease and utilities in return for use of the city recreation center.

4. Upheld the conditions set by the planning commission in approving the Gracie Tract subdivision on Irwin Street, which was appealed by developer Ralph T. McGrath. Councilmen insisted McGrath must go along with putting in sidewalks to provide access to a nearby playground, and fill to eliminate excessive slopes, but agreed to work on having the city pay for extending the sidewalks from the development to the playground.

5. Declared invalid, for technical reasons, a hearing on setback lines along the south side of Lisbon Street and the west side of Verdi Street, and accepted the argument of attorney Julius Selinger, owner of the Verdi property, that Pacific Gas and Electric Co. had sought the action to circumvent negotiating with owners for an easement to put in pole anchors. The council asked the utility to deal with the property owners.

Knife Taken In Albert Park Fight

Bernard Elmer Shepard, 19, of 224 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael was booked on charges of disturbing the peace and possessing a switch-blade knife after San Rafael police broke up a fight between him and a 17-year-old Hamilton Air Force Base youth in Albert Park at 4:28 p.m. yesterday.

The other youth was booked at juvenile hall on a disturbance charge.

Police said they sent two officers to the park after receiving a tip that a fight was in progress.

After breaking it up and questioning the two combatants, police concluded Shepard had held a knife but thrown it away when he saw them arrive.

A six-inch plastic-handled knife was found nearby, they said.

Both youths denied the knife was actually used in the battle, but the younger one said Shepard had "menaced him with it" after getting it from the glove-compartment of his car during the fight.

The suspects said the fight started after Shepard made insulting remarks about the other youth's girl friend.

Fire Badges

Mill Valley Fire Department is giving children junior fire marshall badges this week and distributing literature regarding home safety checks in connection with fire prevention week, according to Henry Pierroz, fire prevention officer.

Propositions On Schools Are Backed

The Marin County Board of Education passed resolutions last night urging voters to support Proposition 2 and 3 on Nov. 3.

The board said that Proposition 2, which provides for the issue of bonds amounting to 380 million dollars for state buildversity of California and junior ings including colleges, University of California and junior colleges, is "essential for the orderly growth and development of public higher education."

Proposition 3 provides 260 million dollars for loans and grants to local school districts for school construction. The board said this issue of state school bonds is necessary to "maintain educational opportunities for all California children."

Two Intoxicated Drivers Fined $166

Two men were fined $166 each in Marin Municipal Court yesterday for drunken driving.

Edward Louis Heuck, 59, of San Francisco, was arrested on Highway 101 last Sept. 23 by California Highway Patrol. Albert Bidegain, 31, of 840 Sutro Avenue, Novato, was arrested on the highway by the patrol Oct. 2.

Education Consultants Due $13,250 A Year

The Marin County Board of Education voted last night to pay equal salaries to three educational consultants despite their unequal tenure on the staff.

"We want to study this question still further," said Supt. Virgil S. Hollis, "but first we should start these three people at the same salary level." The salary is $13,250 per year.

The consultants are Morrisson Gardner, in his fifth year with the county; Robert Spain, in his second year, and Lynn Jenks, in his first year. Jenks will actually get less money this year because he will work one month less than the others.

Board member Arthur Dolcini objected: "I know that we could have kept at least one of these people for considerable less. I also wonder how the man with five years experience is going to feel when newcomers make the same salaries."

Board vice president James A. Carroll contended that if the board always paid according to tenure and previous training and experience, some salaries would be out of proportion to the amount of responsibility.

Dolcini proposed that the two less-experienced consultants be kept at $13,000 "which would still be a big raise," and that the man with tenure be paid $13,500.

Dolcini found himself alone, however, in opposing the recommendation of the board's administrative services committee for "equal pay for equal responsibility."

The board directed its legislation committee to take the first steps toward forming a committee from Marin County school bodies to coordinate action at the 1965 session of the California legislature.

It directed Mrs. Adele J. Alpers of the committee to seek aid of the county school boards association in coordinating arrangements.

The board also directed Superintendent Hollis to investigate whether Marin schools qualified for aid under the federal anti-poverty program are receiving it.

Hollis said these programs would qualify under the anti-poverty act: Bayview Schools at San Quentin Prison, Loma Alta School (Juvenile Hall), the county compensatory education program, the special education program, outdoor education, the Tamalpais High School District study center at Marin City, and the "total education" program of Marin City Community Services District.

The board heard a report that the Marin City Child Care Center should be renovated and revitalized by a new staff and ready to recommence operation by Dec. 1.

Corte Madera Committee To Study Antenna Plans

Creation of a three-man committee to study proposals of two community television anteena companies was approved last night by the Corte Madera Town Council, thus postponing awarding of a franchise for the antenna system until December.

Councilmen Albert E. Kogler and William W. Collier said they were not prepared to choose between the two companies and aksed that further study be made.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst and Councilmen Charles F. Pendleton and Norman R. Barnett indicated they favored one of the companies applying but did not say which one. Tele-Vue Systems of Marin Inc. and Clear View Cable Systems Inc. of Fairfax are the applicants.

Clear View Cable Systems' plan calls for underground lines to subscribers. Representatives of Tele-Vue Systems said they had planned to have their cables follow the above-ground utility lines in the area, but were prepared to put them underground if the council so directed.

Mayor Colthurst said he would appoint two councilmen and one citizen to the committee, which would be scheduled to present its report at the Dec. 15 council meeting.

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

1. Filed a report from Daniel P. Coleman Associates of San Francisco which stated immediate dredging of San Clemente Creek in the Mariner Cove area was not necessary to maintain proper drainage in the area. Colthurst said the matter will be on the council's agenda again when engineers studying the creek on behalf of the Mariner Cove Improvement Assn. have completed their report.

2. Granted Livio J. Zanzi of 108 Lakeside Drive, a permit for a camera repair shop in his home in a residential zone.

3. Authorized Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow Jr. to begin preliminary negotiations for purchase of the Marina Village lagoon site. Brandow said the cost would exceed $20,000.

4. Ordered installation of a stop sign at Willow and Redwood avenues, recommended by Police Chief Frank L. Nelson.

5. Referred a request for an additional two members on the three-man board of design from William Gilbert, chairman, to the planning commission.

6. Referred a request for a stop sign at the northeast corner of the Stetson Avenue - Butda Court intersection to the police chief for study.

7. Notified contractors in the Uplands subdivision they would be liable for damage to Paradise Drive caused by loose dirt and heavy vehicles and that two-way traffic on the streets would have to be maintained at all times.

Stolen Property Trial Starts

Dennis Michael Wagner, 21, Forest Knolls, began jury trial today before Marin Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating on a charge of receiving stolen property.

He allegedly had a large quantity of stolen silverware and other home furnishings in a shed near the Wagner home on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in the Tamal Road area, officers said.

Wagner, represented by William B. Wolfson, San Rafael attorney, was arrested July 30 by Marin County sheriff's officers. W. L. Mackey, deputy district attorney, is prosecuting.

TRIBUTE TO OUR DAIRYMEN

Despite the great increase in human population, our cows are holding their own, and 75% of Marin county land on the tax roles is still classified as agricultural.

Marin remains in 11th place in the state in milk production.

The dairy industry in the county, run by some 130 top grade dairymen, produces 1,000,000 glasses of milk a day. This adds up to $10,000,000 worth of milk annually from more than 40,000 dairy animals.

Though the number of operating dairies has decreased over the years, the number of cows has remained about the same, with production increasing steadily until 1962.

About half the land in the county is used for milk production, 333,000 acres, and it accounts for 90% of Marin's agricultural activity.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Physician Goes To Extremes In Cutting Out Of Obesity

VAN DELLEN

A Cleveland physician decided that dieting is for the birds when it comes to treating extremely obese women. Dr. Rupert B. Turnbull Jr. resorted to an operation in which 19 feet of the small intestine is sidetracked from the rest of the gastrointestinal system. This shortens the time it takes food to go from the stomach to the large intestine, so that very little is absorbed.

But the operation does not allow the fatties to have their cake and eat it, too. Too much food causes diarrhea.

THE INDIVIDUAL is left with 30 inches of small intestine, which is enough to provide adequate nourishment after weight loss is completed. On the other hand, vitamin and mineral deficiencies may develop. According to the Medical Tribune, these conditions can be corrected with a monthly injection of vitamin B-12 and weekly injections of vitamin D and magnesium sulfate. Calcium is administered orally.

This type of treatment is a severe price to pay for overeating and Dr. Turnbull regards it as a last-ditch measure. After effects include muscular weakness and a sagging morale, as well as sagging skin. But it makes extremely heavy women lose weight.

THE OPERATION has been performed on 12 patients. The largest weighed 450 pounds and the lightest 290 pounds (4 feet 11 inches tall). Two women lost so much weight they had long aprons of skin hanging from the abdomen and upper arms. This excess flesh was removed by plastic surgery.

This shunt operation has been used on eight men with a high cholesterol level. A Minnesota surgeon reported a normal or subnormal cholesterol level after the procedure. But there is no indication that arteriosclerosis will be arrested.

Overweight and the amount of cholesterol in the blood cannot always be decreased by diet. This is why researchers continue their efforts to find the answers to these puzzling problems.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SOVIET

the raid on the night of Spt. 28-29 "confirmed" they had been engaged in espionage.

An embassy spokesman said American political counselor Malcolme Loom "denied the validity" of the espionage charge and told the Russians their note failed to answer the U.S. protest.

British Charge d'Affaires Thomas A. Brimelow rejected the Soviet note as "completely unsatisfactory," an aide said.

Motorcycle Hits Girl On Bike

A 10-year-old San Anselmo girl was knocked off her bicycle by a motorcycle yesterday. The driver paused to ask her if she was hurt, then sped away, San Anselmo police reported.

The girl, Melany Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Kramer, 1569 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, was bruised on the left foot and scraped on the left elbow. She was treated by her family doctor, police said.

The accident happened at 5 p.m. on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at Madrone Avenue, when the driver of a red Honda made a U-turn into the girl's eastbound bicycle. He was described as being about 30 years old, deeply tanned, wearing a light jacket and white helmet with blue visor.

CAMPAIGN

years from now and 20 years from now? What kind of America are we going to leave our children?

"I don't believe for one moment that the American people have accepted centralized government."

Before going to Pennsylvania Goldwater said that if he wins he will ask former President Dwight D. Eisenhower to undertake a study mission to South Vietnam.

Goldwater said he wants Eisenhower to head a team of experts to conduct an on-the-scene inquiry into the situation in the embattled Southeast Asian county, and seek a solution.

In New York, the shoulder-hugging camaraderie that existed briefly between Goldwater and Gov. Nelson A Rockefeller last month is vanishing under a new wave of ill-feeling and accusation, it appeared today.

All indications were that the dispute between the GOP presidential nominee and the man who did the most to try to keep him from the nomination is wider and deeper than ever. The proof of this is expected to be out in the open for all to see when Goldwater makes his only campaign appearance here at Madison Square Garden Oct. 26.

Republican State Campaign-Director Michael N. Scelsi said he doubted that Rockefeller or GOP Sen. Kenneth M. Keating, who is running for election independently of the Goldwater ticket, would attend the rally. He said he "really didn't know" whether any top New York Republicans would be there.

Miller, in Wilmington, N.C., accused the Democrats of whitewashing the Robert G. (Bobby) Baker scandal.

"Tomorrow it has been one solid year since Baker resigned his position he held with Lyndon Johnson's help, sufferance and blessing. In that full year—during most of which Lyndon has been president—the sleazy truth has been hidden, crossed over, covered up, whitewashed and generally left alone," Miller said.

Humphrey, at St. Louis, Mo., jabbing at the Republicans' "law and order" campaign theme, said today "it's not how do we enforce the law but how do we make it just?"

The Democratic vice presidential candidate departed from his prepared text before the National Conference of Catholic Charities to comment on the recent riots in Harlem and elsewhere.

"When I hear us talking about lawlessness, and I don't condone lawlessness, then I think of Harlem," he said.

'It's not how do we enforce the law but how do we make it just?" he said. "The acid of poverty corrodes the human spirit. It eliminates hope for the future."

Group Forms To Back Transit District Vote

The Citizens for Transit Committee, formed to spread information about the proposed Marin Transit District, elected a nominating committee at an organizational meeting last night at the Civic Center.

Named to the nominating committee were Jess J. France of San Anselmo as chairman, Carroll Snyker of Ross, executive secretary of the Marin County Development Assn., and Milton Nelson of San Rafael.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the nominating committee is expected to offer a slate of officers for consideration within a few days.

As a start, the League of Women Voters will produce more of their informal leaflets about the proposed district which will be on the November ballot, Bruce said. There also will be wider distribution of the pamphlets, he said.

A bus of the type than could be used in a transit system was on display at the Civic Center, and the bus may tour the county before the election, Brue said.

Will Highway Patrol Head LittleBit Off At Bridge?

Justin LittleBit may be on the verge of winning his battle with the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, but he has not yet moved the California Highway Patrol.

LittleBit, the Texan who wants to ride his horse, Dandy Cody, across Golden Gate Bridge to complete a 6,000-mile horseback trip, said today he is still "sitting and waiting."

But Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol remained adamant that LittleBit would not be allowed on the Freeway. He said also he still feels allowing the horse on the bridge would be creating a hazard.

Littlebit said he believes he can get the horse to the bridge without going on the freeway. He noted that it is possible to reach Vista Point without going on the freeway by going through Sausalito. From there to the bridge, Parnow agrees, the road is not a freeway.

Parnow said the horse must stay off the part of the highway that is divided, even though the governor of the state wants to ride his horse too. He said the restriction is in the state vehicle code, and the governor cannot change that.

Parnow said he has not yet decided whether he will appear before the bridge district board Friday to argue against granting LittleBit permission to ride across the bridge. He said he is not sure whether the highway patrol would provide an escort for the horse and rider.

Yesterday the San Francisco Board of Supervisors took a stand in favor of LittleBit's proposed ride, and one supervisor suggested that the San Francisco sheriff's posse mount up and accompany LittleBit. However, bridge District President Ben K. Lehrer said earlier he would oppose any other horses being ridden on the bridge.

HEIGHT

could be granted, say 10 per cent.

The present height limit is 35 feet in residential areas. However, the council in August allowed a variance to permit a 12-story "retirement home" 140 feet in height.

Mayor Neil R. Brixon went along with the idea of the height limit ordinance, or at least to hold hearings on such a change, but said that if another proposal for a high rise-home for the elderly came up, he would again vote for it.

Marker and Councilman Robert J. Smith said they had once thought the present ordinance would keep high-rise developments out of the city, but that it had not worked.

Councilman Henry Brocco said that he was not ready to make a blanket statement that he would vote against all high-rise developments in the future, but was willing to find out if the public wanted tighter height limits.

The audience was sparse, containing only a few Greenbrae residents and Niels Schultz Jr., on whose land the presently approved high-rise home will be built.

In the joint meeting, the council and commission agreed that members of each group would continue to make site inspections of planning matters before the groups, but agreed with an opinion by Elliott that full disclosure of evidence gained should be made at the public hearing on the matter.

Marker said he felt the city was turning down too many applications for variances or use permits, restricting development in some cases for a year by the action. He said the city should work with developers to get plans changed, rather than flatly denying applications.

Quentin Stabbing Still Probed

San Quentin Prison officials and the Marin County district attorney's office today were still investigating Sunday morning's stabbing of inmate John Calvin Scott, 28, in the prison football bleachers.

Scott was listed as in good condition at the prison hospital.

Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales has questioned inmate Tommie Lee Venerable about the stabbing, but has not taken any action toward possible charges against Venerable nor anyone else, he said today.

Chamber's Laws Change In Novato

They change the fiscal year to start on July 1 instead of Jan. 1; shift the annual meeting from January to July; increase the board of directors from 12 to 15 members, with one-third to be elected each year for three-year terms; make past presidents ex-officio directors with full voting power, and provide that member may be expelled by the board of directors on a three-fourths vote on just cause, with right of appeal to the full membership.

Hy Silver of Silver Simca was named to the board to replace Herman Horowitz, who resigned. James Adair was named chamber representative on the Marin County Rapid Transit Committee.

The chamber is at an all-time high with 249 members, reported Lee Wise, membership committee chairman.

DANCES

Mrs. John Finn III said she and her husband have chaperoned many dances and "the behavior of 99 per cent of the youngsters was always on an extremely cooperative basis. The one per cent exists in any population and they are usually asked to leave."

Councilman George E. Wickham said he could not sanction anyone poking holes in the ceiling with a pool cue. He said parents whose children attend the dances should donate their times once a month as chaperones. "If you have a good show of chaperones you will find a lot of these problems will be forgotten," he declared.

Benjamin said he is making up a list of 250 chaperones to be called upon through the year. Steve Regalia, a teen-ager, offered services from 19 members of his car club and was referred to Benjamin by Wornum.

Keith Cooke said he has heard tales of the chaperones themselves being a little tipsy.

Mrs. Edmund Gross told councilmen, "It is a disgrace to the city that the only form of recreation we offer our teen-agers is dances."

Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks replied, "I echo these sentiments. If Mill Valley School District and Tamalpais Union High School District will chip in, we will chip in some money," (Mrs. Gross is a trustee in the Mill Valley district).

"I think you get the picture," Wornum told the young people. "We are all in favor of youth . . . but if you make a row and wreck the joint, that's it."

ZONING

The properties in question run along West Blithedale Avenue, bounded by Oakdale and Hillside avenues. They have been apartment zoning for about 10 years and, since last July, apartments at 1,500 square feet per unit.

Recently the planning commission recommended that the area be rezoned to single family. The city council proposed instead to upgrade the apartment zoning from 1,500 to 2,500 square feet per unit.

John D. Erickson, city planning consultant, who recommended single family, said there are now 10 dwelling units on the properties, that under apartment zoning at 1,500 square feet there could be 30 apartments; under 2,500 square feet, 15; under dueight.

Councilman White said that two building permits have been taken out, one as late as yesterday, to add one unit to an existing duplex and to make alterations to another dwelling.

J. H. O'Reilley told the council that Lynn Jensen has a one-family dwelling unit which he has converted to a duplex. Wornum asked Balmer to "please investigate."

Car Runs Off Road Into Ditch

Joseph A. Sequeira of Lucas Valley complained of stomach pains but was not hospitalized yesterday after his car ran into a ditch near Novato as he skidded to avoid another car making a U-turn.

There was no collision. The driver of the other car, Chris J. Frederickson, 16, of 1868 Virginia Avenue, Novato, said he started to make the U-turn at Olive Avenue and Atherton Avenue after looking back and seeing no other car.

He was cited for making an unsafe turn. Sequeira said he thought the other car was going to turn right, but then skidded when he saw the U-turn start in front of him.

Brush, Timber Fire Raging

SUSANVILLE (UPI) — A 2,500 acre brush and timber fire, one of more than 100 ignited last night by a Northern California lightning storm, raged out of control today at Fredonia Peak in Lassen County.

The State Division of Forestry said it hoped to control the blaze by late tonight or tomorrow.

OBITUARIES

Dorothy Bailey Dies At 47

Dorothy V. Bailey, 47, of Mill Valley, died today in a San Francisco rest home after a short illness.

She was the wife of Ray Bailey, artist of the "Bruce Gentry" comic strip, and had lived since June at 216 Miller Avenue. Mrs. Bailey formerly lived one year in Sausalito, coming to California from her native New York.

Mrs. Bailey was a former fashion illustrator. She was an alumnus of Pratt Institute in New York City and was active in several women's groups in New York. She attended both Mill Valley and San Rafael Christian Science churches.

Surviving, besides her husband, are two daughters, Bonnie Gay Bailey of Mill Valley and Carol Jo Bailey of Stanford University; a son, Richard W. Bailey of San Francisco; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Behrens of Valley Stream, N.Y., and a sister, Mrs. Alvan Holeywell of Baldwin, N.Y.

Private funeral and cremation will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael, directed by Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

BESSIE NELSON

Funeral for Bessie Nelson, 81, long time resident of Novato, will be held at the Chapel of the Pines in Placerville at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Nelson died Sunday at a Placerville convalescent hospital. She moved there a week ago from a convalescent hospital in Novato.

A native of Texas, she moved to Santa Rosa in 1937 and to Novato soon afterward. Her husband died in 1938.

She leaves two sons, Robert of Petaluma and Melbourn Nelson of Lake Tahoe; a daughter, Mildred Dayton of Placerville, and six grandchildren.

The family prefers memorial contributions to the First Baptist Church of Novato, where Mrs. Nelson was an active member for many years.

ANN WYLIE

Funeral for Mrs. Ann Wylie, 40, of 307 Drake Avenue, Sausalito, who died at a local hospital Saturday after a short illness, will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

A native of Childress, Tex., she had lived in California for 28 years and in Marin County for 10 years.

MRS. DURBIN

Funeral for Mrs. Rebecca Jordan Durbin will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, Marin City.

Mrs. Durbin, who collapsed and died Saturday at the age of 45, was a deacon of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, and a member of the United Presbyterian Women.

Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

THE CITY COUNCIL GOT THE CAKE

It was the 4-H Club's birthday, but the San Rafael City Council got the cake last night. Two boy members of the San Rafael Community 4-H Club, president Eric Scheidtmann (left) and Blaine Sidesinger, baked this cake, and girls, including Jeanne Tunison (here looking on) frosted and decorated it in honor of the 50th birthday of 4-H Clubs. Then they presented it to the city council. Mayor John F. McInnis cut the cake at the council meeting, and councilmen, other city officials (and an Independent-Journal reporter) each had a piece. It was very good, all reported.

Mill Valley 'Chutes' Repair Is Proposed

Stairs (sometimes called "the chutes" by old-time Mill Valley residents) leading from the corner of Tamalpais and Summit avenues to Bernard Street should be repaired by the city and henceforth maintained.

This appeal, termed "urgent," was given the Mill Valley City Council last night in a petition signed by Louise Cagwin and 75 other persons. No action was taken, the matter being put over to Oct. 19 on Miss Cagwin's request.

"These steps have been a main thoroughfare in Mill Valley for over 40 years and are indispensible to the many people — commuters, school children, housewives and hikers," said Miss Cagwin, who lives at 164 Tamalpais Avenue.

She said that in the past few years the stairs have been deteriorating and are now "extremely hazardous to life and limb. Only the young and nimble dare use them."

The council voted unanimously to attempt to get the replica of the Old Mill, used in the Marin County exhibit at the state fair, for $44. The model, 11-by-four feet, is now in Sacramento.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

1. Acknowledged receipt of a pedestrian safety citation for 1963, the 13th consecutive one, Mayor Michael Wornum giving the plaque to Police Chief Dan Terzich. "Unfortunately," said Wornum, "last year a little boy was run over on East Blithedale. I hope he did not die in vain and in the future that we take greater care."

2. Awarded a contract of $2,950 to low bidder W. K. McLelland Co. of San Rafael for overlay pavement on Sunnyside Avenue. Three runners-up were Piombo Brothers, $3,230; Ghilotti Brothers, $3,286 and Cecotti and Son of Marin, $3,498.

3. Continued the appeal of Glenn H. Cavalli of planning commission denial of a substandard lot variance at 215 Del Casa Drive. Councilmen suggested Cavalli can perhaps purchase additional land.

4. Denied, 3-2, rezoning of 5,000 square feet on Camino Alto about 150 feet north of East Blithedale Avenue from light industrial to professional-administrative. Mayor Michael Wornum and Councilman Albert E. White voted against the denial.

5. Referred to City Mgr. Bert A. Balmer a suggestion that the taxi ordinance be amended to include providing for a car for hire license, following request from A. J. Silveira, Old Mill cab owner.

6. Appointed Rev. Jack Bartlett, assistant pastor at Mill Valley Community Church, as United Nations Week chairman for Mill Valley.

Students Get Parking Permits

San Rafael High School student are registering their autos for issuance of campus parking stickers under a new parking control plan, Dean of Students Florence Abraham's office reported today.

When the sticker use goes into effect — probably next week— senior students will have a reserved parking area for the first time. Their parking decals will have a different color than those for the underclassmen.

The school will continue to have a "closed campus" policy, with students not allowed to drive their cars off the lot during the school day. All registered vehicles must be parked in the lot, rather than on nearby streets.

Till At Cleaners Taken To Cleaners

Someone broke into Brunner's Major Cleaners and Laundry, Third and Lindaro streets, San Rafael, last night and stole $82.73 from the cash register and a metal cash drawer.

Leonard Majore, owner of the firm, reported to San Rafael police at 6:39 a.m. that someone had broken a pane from a rear window to gain entry. He said $56.75, in pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters, was stolen from a cash drawer and $25.98 in coins and currency was taken from the register.

Talk Planned On Sanitary Annexation

Directors of the Tiburon Sanitary District last night agreed to meet with Belvedere city officials to discuss annexation of the city to the district.

No date was set for the meeting. (Belvedere city councilmen last night put off discussion of the proposal until they hear from sanitary district representatives.)

District directors also postponed action on a planned drainag district to alleviate winter flooding in the Cove Road-Tiburon Boulevard area until further action is taken by Belvedere and Tiburon.

Rpresentatives of the cities and the district have been meeting in committee to work out details of the plan. Tiburon city councilmen expect to hear a report at their Oct. 15 meeting.

Editor Named

Student John Hildermann of 125 Wilson Way, Larkspur, has been named editor of the Beacon, a College of Marin campus bulletin issued three times a week. Connie Vigno, Tiburon, was named secretary.

Redwood Addition Cost Is Approved

Schematic drawings and a cost estimate for the final stage development of Redwood High School were approved last night by the Tamalpais High School District board.

The project would bring the capacity of the high school in Larkspur to 3,000 students. Total cost estimated by architect Ralph B. Priestley is $2,642,000. The district plans to ask voter approval of bonds to cover the cost.

The San Rafael architectural firm of Gromme and Priestley was ordered to go ahead with preliminary plans. Final development calls for a girls' gymnasium, a new administration building, and new classrooms for art and music.

Priestley said about $60,000 will be needed to convert the present art and music rooms to classrooms.

The architect said the new buildings would be as flexible as possible.

Cost of buildings was set at $1,270,000, while site work, including bleachers and field equipment and outdoor lighting, would come to $695,000. Fees, including the architect's fee, were included in the estimate and came to $232,000. Equipment for the buildings was estimated at $175,000.

The Tamalpais High School Board Also:

1. Heard a panel discussion by Supt. Chester G. Carlisle, curriculum coordinator James Pierce, pupil personnel director Eunice Reader, Asst. Supt. Robert D. Torrey and business director Frank Cassou on the new administrative setup with advisory councils on budget, research and development, counselling and personnel. No action was taken.

2. Agreed to realignment of property lines ear the Tamalpais High School campus to allow comletion of the physical education complex.

3. Called for bids to place fill on the Tamalpais campus as the initial step in completion of the physical education plan.

4. Accepted gifts of books for the Redwood High School library from former student John Chambers, former foreign exchange student Martina Jiminez, and present foreign exchange student Ximena Torres.

Vienna's historic coffee houses, last haven of leisure, are no longer paying.

County Dump Area Park Work Urged

The Larkspur Park and Recreation Commission last night asked that the city tell the county to stop filling operations in the county dump soon, and that a consultant be hired immediately to lay out plans for a city park in the area.

Commissioner Giulio Boeri said no further filling should be allowed on the east side of the dump, and marsh land there should be maintained for wildfowl. He said a small channel must be cleaned out soon to allow water to move through the area involved and new marsh grasses could then be started growing.

He added that an engineer should determin the limit of fill on the south side of the dump area, but that the counuty dump operation would have only a few more months to run before the area to be filled is used up in any case.

Commissioner Peter Krug said he felt the area designatd on city plans for a future yacht harbor should be filled, and that the channels for boats could be dug out later if the city decides to go through with the harbor development.

The council will discuss the question further at its meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Planners Want Tennis Clubs Lights Doused

Tiburon planning commissioners last night agreed that "glare exists" from the Belvedere Tennis Club lights, and asked that the club temporarily turn off the lights which illuminate courts for night tennis playing.

The commission set a Nov. 2 deadline to receive a written report from the county planning staff, which serves the city under contract, on what action may be taken.

Residents in the area have complained that the club's lights on its courts next to Tiburon Boulevard glare into neighboring houses and yards. Club members have said recently installed light baffles have solved the glare problem.

Installation of the lights was approved by the county planning commission before incorporation of Tiburon.

The Tiburon planning commission also:

1. Agreed to a field trip Oct. 15 to view the area proposed for construction of 25 units of a town house condominium apartments at 10-30 Red Hill Circle.

2. Postponed action on plans for expansion of facilities by the Tiburon Peninsula Club at the request of the club.

3. Approved placement of an ice vending machine at 1685 Tiburon Boulevard by the Marin County Ice Co.

4. Approved construction of a three-unit residence in the Marinero area between Lyford Drive and Vistazo West.

5. Approved development plans for Fred G. Zelinsky's restaurant-shops building to be constructed at 1 Main Street.

Farm Group Dinner Set

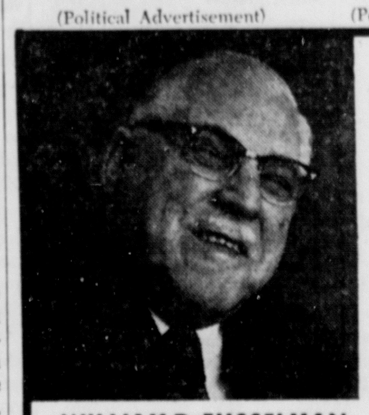

A kickoff dinner for the "food comes first program" will be held Oct. 15 at Forest Knolls, Virginia Porter, Marin County home adviser, yesterday told the Marin County Farm Bureau directors meeting in Novato.

Eight Marin County high schools will take part in the national program, she said.

The Marin County Dairy Herd Improvement Assn. will hold its annual meeting on Nov. 5, at the Point Reyes Community Clubhouse, W. E. Engvall, agricultural extension service, reported to the directors.

Eugene Brown, president, and David Burbank, state delegate, said they would attend a district farm bureau meeting today in Ukiah.

NEW SUNNY HILLS FACILITY—Five separate cottages, such as pictured here by architects Gromme and Priestley, are among new buildings to be erected on Sunny Hills grounds in San Anselmo.

Sunny Hills Work Bids Are Called

The board of directors of Sunny Hills in San Anselmo has authorized a call for bids on construction of the seven new buildings which will comprise a new 40-child living area and administration facility, it was announced today by Mrs. Robert Kettenbach, president.

The project, designed by architects Gromme and Priestley, will include five cottages—each with its own living room, dining room and kitchen; a central building for educational, clinical and administrative services, and a smaller auxiliary building containing a crafts room and shop.

They will replace present Sunny Hills structures built during the 1920s and which will eventually be razed. The new complex is located on approximately 13.4 acres condemned by the San Anselmo School District for its new Red Hill School.

Mrs. Kettenbach said completion is scheduled for the summer of 1965, which will mark the 10th anniversary of Sunny Hills. Site preparation was started by Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael last June.

Approximately 10 acres fronting on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, including the Grape Festival grounds, have been declared surplus and placed on the market for long-term lease.

County Meat Supply Appears To Be Safe

There appeared to be no chance today that Marin County butchers and meat wholesalers would be affected by the shutdown of 40 Bay area meat wholesaling plants.

The shutdown today cut off the supply to hundreds of restaurants and idled about 2,000 butchers in San Francisco, Oakland, San Leandro and Berkeley.

The secretary of the Pacific West Coast Meat Jobbers Assn., the employer group, said that the plants were shut down because a sudden strike would cause spoilage of huge supplies of meat, meaning heavy losses.

The secretary said that the butchers' union refused to agree to give 72 hours notice of any strike they may call.

The butchers and wholesalers have been negotiating for a new contract to replace the one that expired Sept. 30. Although the two sides are far apart on wages, negotiations have not broken down.

A spokesman for Marin Meat Co. Inc., the county's largest wholesaler, said, however that the company intends to stay open and has every hope of signing a contract.

A spokesman for Local 115 of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen said that none of its members in Marin County was endangered by a shutdown.

Winners Named In San Marin Art Festival

Award for the best art-in-action at the festival was presented to craftsman Joseph Brusati of Novato.

In sculpture, Fritz Wasser of San Rafael took first place, Charles Heim of Novato, second, Florence Heuser of Oakland, third, and David C. Jones of Orinda, honorable mention.

In painting Swoza of Oakland won first place, Helen Bryant of Oakland, second, Bill Booth of Antioch, third, and Cliff Reynolds, honorable mention.

In the crafts division, weaver Cranston-Bennett of Oakland awarded first place, jeweler Alice Shannon, second, wood carver Saxeby of San Francisco, third, and Forrest Ayer of Tiburon, honorable mention.

Railroad Building Demolished

Railroad officials said they are "just cleaning up" and have no policy on whether all the old buildings, nearly all wood, will come down.

In May and April Tiburon firemen, by arrangement with the railroad, burned four small wooden buildings as fire training exercises.

Though the railroad is demolishing some buildings at the yard, it has rented others to a boat repair business, architect, mechanic, and artist.

Southern Pacific Co., the parent company, closed the Tiburon yard in October last year. Robert Moor of San Francisco, a former Belvedere resident, has under option 18 acre of the land. About 12 of these acres are under water.

Mail Box Hit

Carol C. Day of 460 Fairhills Drive, San Rafael, told police yesterday that someone had taken her mail box from a post and thrown it down an embankment. She said it was the third such incident in recent months.

POLITICAL BRIEFS

All Six Supervisor Candidates To Talk

All six candidates for supervisor are scheduled to meet the public at a candidates' night tomorrow in the Civic Center supervisors' chambers, starting at 8 p.m.

The public forum is sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Central Marin.

Candidates include Byron W. Leydecker and John F. McInnis in the first district (San Rafael area), William D. Fusselman and Ernest N. Kettenhofen in the second district (Ross Valley), and George H. Ludy and Thomas T. Storer in district four (West Marin).

The speakers will each give brief talks and then answer questions.

BARRY DEMOS

Democrats for Goldwater will hold its first meeting sometime within a week, Mrs. J. H. Haines, chairman, announced today.

The meeting will be held at the Novato Republican Headquarters, 874 Grant Avenue, the exact time to be set later.

Mrs. Haines said the Democrats for Goldwater selected the Republican Headquarters as its office rather than open a third headquarters in the city.

McCARTHY TALK

State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) will address a luncheon meeting of the women's division of the Marin County Real Estate Board tomorrow at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael.

Senator McCarthy will discuss the recent Supreme Court decisions relating to legislative apportionments, and their effect on the California Legislature.

BOAT FOR BARRY

Citizens for Goldwater-Miller in Marin County have chartered a boat to cross the bay Friday evening to hear Sen Barry M. Goldwater at Fisherman's Wharf at 9 p.m.

Rudy Nelson, spokesmen for the Goldwater Town Halls in the county, announced the chartered boat will leave the Dock Restaurant in Tiburon at 7:45 p.m. Friday.

He said only 250 tickets will be sold because that is the capacity of the boat. Tickets are being sold at all Goldwater headquarters in the county.

San Rafael Council Keeps Away From Propositions

All five members of the San Rafael City Council last night declared they have no intention of passing resolutions for or against any of the 17 propositions on the November ballot.

They made their feelings plain as they looked at a request from the Marin branch of the League of Women Voters that they endorse formation of a Marin Transit District, and go on record against State Proposition 14.

"I don't think the city council should take such stands," said Councilman Charles W. Aby. "If we were to take a stand on one issue, we would perhaps have to take them on all 17 items on the state ballot."

Councilman Louis H. Baar said he felt such endorsements "are coming awfully close to telling people how they should vote. I think they have enough sense to know how to vote."

No vote was taken, but none was needed, since each member of the council soon echoed the feelings of Aby and Baar.

"I don't think these things should be on the agenda," added Aby.

Belvedere Wins Residence Suit

The city of Belvedere has won its suit to require Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Mishkind to turn their home at 35 Bellevue Avenue into a single-family residence.

The Mishkinds purchased the house believing it could be used as a duplex, but were told by the city that they could not rent part of it to anyone else, let anyone outside the family use it rent-free, or even let relatives live in the separate apartments, as the building is in a one-family district.

In a decision Friday in Marin Superior Court, the Mishkinds were ordered by Judge Lonard A. Thomas to change the house to single family use by Oct. 1, 1967.

Annex Group Is Dissolved

The Loma Verde Homeowners Assn. last night dissolved the annexation feasibility study committee, according to Mrs. Lois Park, secretary.

The committee was formed early this year to study feasibility of annexing to Novato. The study resulted in the city of Novato hiring William R. Zion of Lafayette to make a formal survey. The Zion study was the basis for the city going ahead with the annexation, which will appear on the Nov. 3 general election ballot.

Library Adding 'Old Days' Books

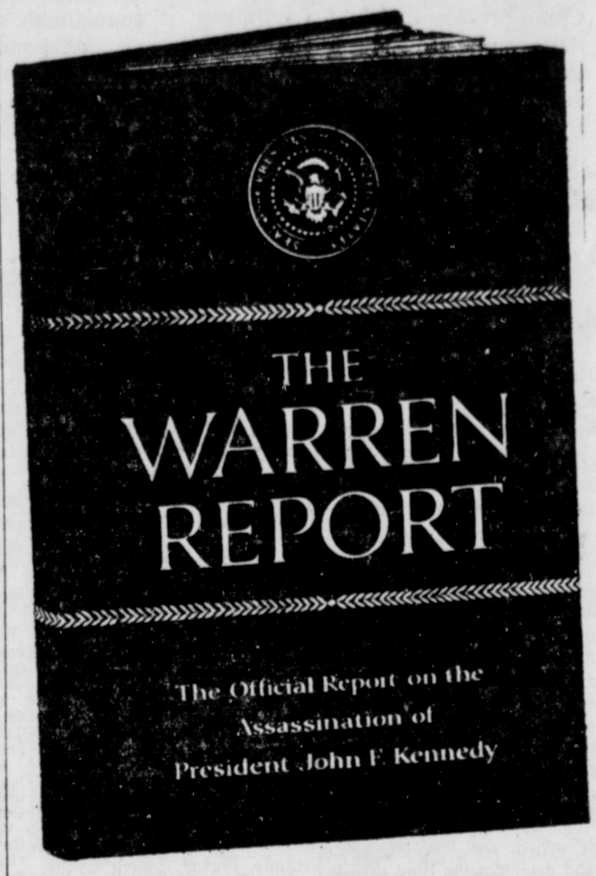

New books about old days in California have been added to the San Rafael Public Library's collection, the library board learned last night.

Among these are "South of San Francisco," the past and present of San Mateo County, published by that county's historical association; "Covina," a similar work about the Southern California town, and a book of photos of early days in Belvedere and Tiburon, published by Landmarks Society.

Other library board business was routine.

The autumn equinox this year was at 7:17 p.m. Eastern Standard Time, Sept. 22.

County's Highway Progress Listed

Detours on Highway 101 near Hamilton Air Force Base should be eliminated early next year, according to District Engineer Alan S. Hart of the state Division of Highways.

Hart listed the status of planned, current and finished state projects in Marin in a newsletter sent out to coincide with National Highway Week, which began Sunday.

Work on 101, between Miller Creek Road and Entrada Drive, is now 87 per cent complete, the report states.

Another Highway 101 project described is the planned widening to eight lanes of a six mile stretch between Miller Creek Road and the San Quentin Wye.

Bids will be called soon, it says, for the first phase, in which streets and off-ramps between Third Street and a point south of Irwin Street will be realigned to permit the widening. A budget of $546,000 has been authorized for this phase.

In the Novato area, the report says contractors are now excavating and placing underdrains in a $151,000 project from Route 37 to a point near San Marin Drive. A revised freeway agreement, to provide for relocating this stretch of highway, is pending between the city and the state.

Also described is construction of the frontage road between Hamilton Air Force Base and the Pacheco Overcrossing. The 4.2 million dollar project includes climbing lanes in both directions over St. Vincent's Hill, and interchanges at Ignacio Boulevard, Bolling Drive and the base.

New rest room facilities at Vista Point should be finished next month, Hart said. The $54,-100 project includes excavation and putting in conduit and water lines. Design studies for a west side parking lot and a connection with the highway at the Golden Gate Bridge are nearly complete, the report says.

Projects described which are not yet started are:

1. Widening of Highway 1 for three spots between Muir Beach and Stinson Beach. The $15,500 job is to be advertised for bids soon.

2. A half-mile of landscaping on Highway 101 through Corte Madera, skipped in earlier landscaping "due to the lack of satisfactory billboard ordinance," since passed.

3. Construction of 1.4 miles of four-lane highway on Route 131 between Blackfield Drive and Reed's Underpass.

4. Extension of Route 17 from Highway 101 to Point Reyes Station, for which "planning studies are in progress."

Hart's newsletter also takes note of completion of the $4,287,-000 freeway interchange project at the junction of Highway 101 and 37, finished in July, and the $187,000 installation of 5.5 miles of chain-link fencing and metal beam divider on 101 from Waldo Undercrossing to Corte Madera Creek, which included several types of experimental glare shields.

Subdivision Is Denied In Hub City

The San Anselmo Planning Commission last night voted 3-2 to deny the application fo William Anderson and Henry Barsotti for a three-lot single-family subdivision on Oak Avenue.

The majority agreed that the avenue was too narrow for additional homes. Commissioners Charles Leitzell and Warren Perry were in the minority. Commissioner James Murphy abstained and Commissioner E. L. Nordmann was absent.

Leitzell and Commissioners John West and Jerry W. Lloyd were named to recommend procedures for study of the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce recommendation that all the downtown area be zoned for planned development.

Fire protection and a slope policy were discussed by the commission at some legth, but there was no action.

Girl Hit By Egg May Lose Sight Of An Eye

Only time will tell whether a Sir Francis Drake High School girl will lose one eye as the result of an egg hitting her after the Drake-Redwood High School football game Saturday, Marin General Hospital reported today.

Doctors said it will be a few more days before it is known whether they can save the eye of Linda Haggerty, 15-year-old sophomore and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haggerty of 152 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo.

An egg, thrown by one of two boys on a motor scooter, broke in her eye, while she was riding home after the game in a car driven by Ralph B. Palmer of 47 Elm Avenue, San Anselmo. The incident happened on Shady Lane in Ross.

Ross Police Chief Joe Regoni said today that the scooter riders have not been found.

McCarthy Seeks Forts For Parks

State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) yesterday proposed immediate negotiation with the federal government to lease lands in Forts Barry, Baker and Cronkhite for park and recreation purposes.

He made the statement before the Assembly Committee on Natural Resources, Planning and Public Works in San Francisco.

McCarthy said he tried to get these lands for California through purchase, but since that is not possible at present, he urges the lease method.

"Marin County and all of California will benefit from the development of a park in Forts Barry, Baker and Cronkhite," he concluded. He said the 300 acres of land in Marin military reservations would provide space for more than a thousand picnic sites and 500 campsites.

Prop. 14 Is Opposed By Corte Maderans

The Corte Madera Town Council last night unanimously adopted a resolution opposing Proposition 14 on the Nov. 3 ballot.

Opposition to the proposed amendment to the state constitution nullifying provisions of the Rumford Act was requested by Mrs. William C. Anderson, president of the League of Women Voters of Central Marin, in a letter to the council.

"This amendment will remove from the state and its subdivisions the power to pass laws against discrimination in housing on the basis of race, color, national origin or ancestry," she wrote.

"Proposition 14 would give an individual the legal right to discriminate, contrary to the spirit of the Constitutions for the United States and California."

Several members of the audience urging the council to take action opposing the proposition. They were Mrs. Robert J. Gicker of 9 Birch Avenue, representing the league; Mary Henry of 1044 Meadowsweet Drive, and Gerald Rubin of 171 Summit Drive, Corte Madera.

Only opposition to the league's proposal came from Robert Colter of 459 Montecito Drive, who declared rights were not given to one group of people by denying another right—that of selling property to whomever they wished — to all.

Councilman Charles F. Pendleton made the motion to adopt a resolution urging defeat of the amendment.

San Rafael Man Robbed In Store

A San Rafael man, manager of a San Francisco shoe store, was robbed yesterday by a well-dressed gunman who escaped with $2,400 in cash and checks from the store safe.

Harold S. Brigman, 41, of 113 Auburn Street, San Rafael, said the gunman slipped into the Frank Werner Co. store at Post Street and Grant Avenue moments after the front door was unlocked.

"When I turned on the lights, there he was," Brigman said.

The man, a handsome six-footer, ordered Brigman downstairs and told him to unlock the safe. Then he made him lie down on the floor and tied his hands with some cord and some electrical wire.

"He didn't tie me very well," Brigman explained. He soon worked himself free, went upstairs and called police. By then, the gunman was long gone, however.

Several of the checks were not negotiable, Brigman said. The loss will be covered by insurance, he added.

Brigman said two salesmen were due about the time he opened the store, but they were both late.

"It was probably just as well," Brigman said. "The gunman might have panicked or something."

Tools, Bike Stolen

Stewart Frederick Orchard, 49, of 1718 Center Road, Novato, yesterday reported to Novato police that tools and a bicycle, valued at $150, had been taken from a pickup truck at that addrss between noon Sunday and yesterday morning.

Baptist Seminary To Get Painting

Mrs. George Demont Otis of 907 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, will present a painting, "Corte Madera Grade," to the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at 2:30 p.m. Thursday.

Accepting will be by Dr. Harold G. Graves, seminary president. Mrs. Otis has presented several paintings to Marin County institutions within the last two years.

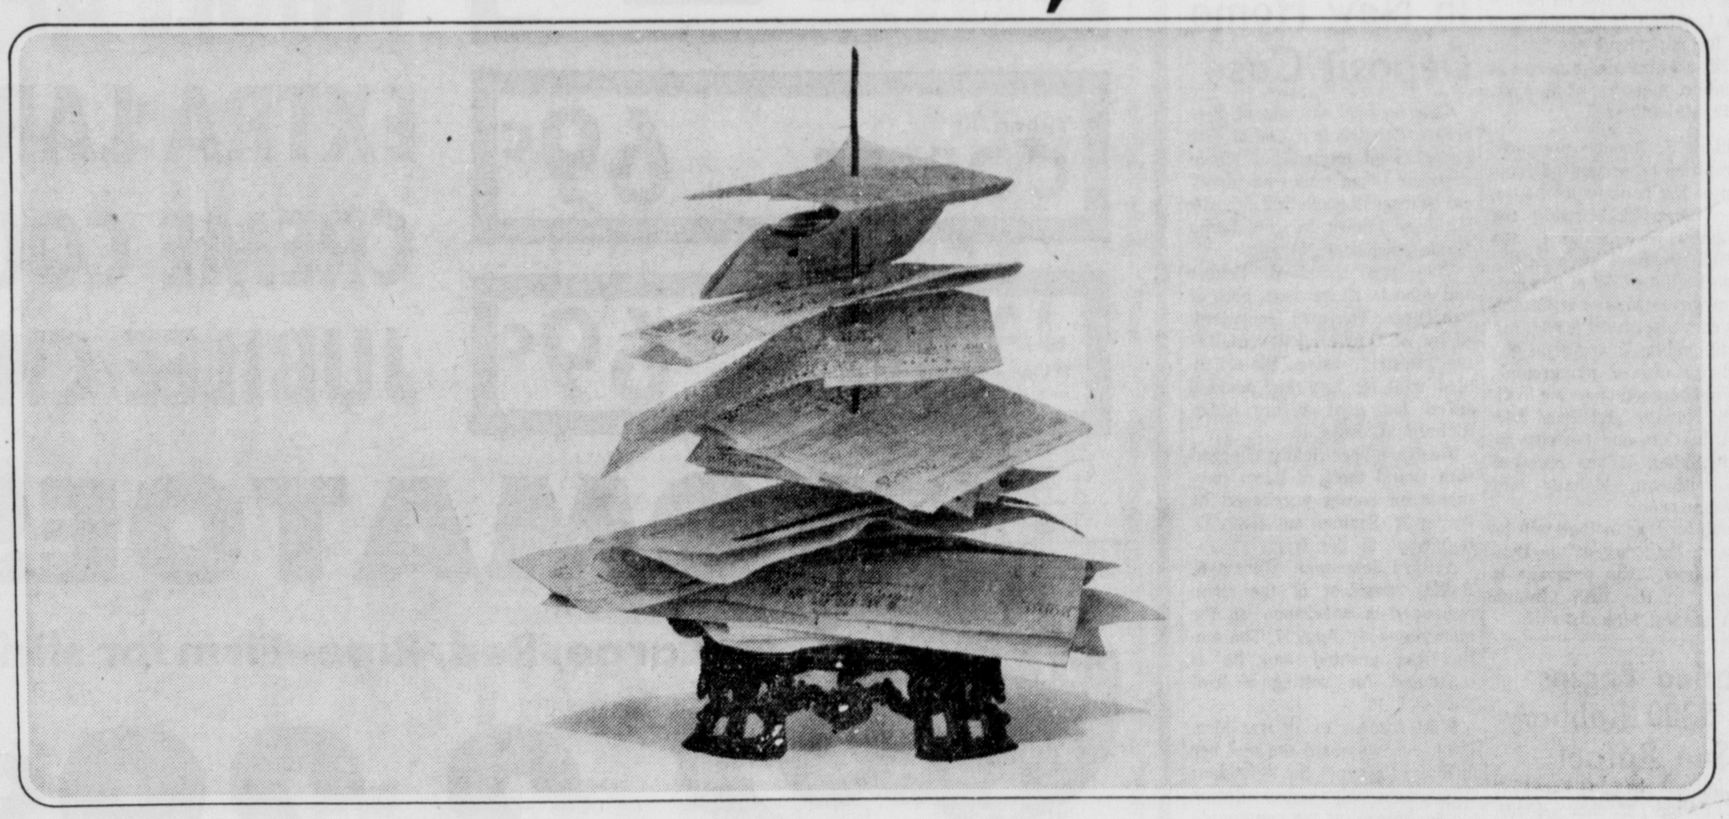

Auto Stolen

Harold Dean Holman of 101 Motel at 7349 Redwood Highway, Novato, reported to Novato police yesterday that his 1951 Oldsmobile had been taken from the motel sometime Sunday night. Holman said that the car was locked. It bore Oregon license plates.

School Site State Loans Are Studied

Trustees of the San Jose School District last night authorized Supt. Ralph Giovanniello to investigate the possibility of state loans for the purchase of two additional school sites.

The amount of the necessary loan and the precise location and size of the sites has not yet been decided. Giovanniello explained that the site purchase is part of a five-year expansion program. He fears sites might become scarce and much more expensive if the board waits until construction is to start.

One site would be in the Loma Verde area. It is already called for in the Loma Verde master plan. The other would be in Hamilton Air Force Base.

Bids will be opened Oct. 28 on construction of two multi-purpose rooms, one at Loma Verde School and the other at San Jose Intermediate School. Bids will be reviewed at the next meeting of the board Nov. 2.

San Rafael Planner Is Appointed

V. Judson Klein of 4 Archangel Way, was named to the San Rafael Planning Commission last night.

Klein, one of three men under consideration for the post recently vacated by Walter J. Coyne, was appointed by a unanimous vote oft he city council with virtually no discussion.

Also considered were Barry L. Wasserman of 312 Fairhills Drive and Dr. Lawrence C. Garrett of 150 Valley View Avenue.

Klein, 30, is a four-year resident of San Rafael. He is with the San Francisco law firm of Pillsbury and Dunlap.

A native of Dayton, Ohio, he was graduated from Williams College, Mass., and Cambridge University, England, and received his law degree from Harvard University.

He is secretary, a director and attorney to the Terra Linda Valley Property Owners Assn., and was a co-founder of the coordinating council of Terra Linda Homeowners.

He and his wife, Bodil, have three sons, aged 5, 3 and 2.

State Rec Aide To Talk In Novato

Mrs. Dewey Forry, chairman of the California Recreation Commission, will address the next meeting of the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission, director Edmund Mahany last night told the commission.

Mrs. Forry will talk on Proposition 1, which is a state bond issue for park land acquisition. She will also present a movie at the public meeting at 9 p.m., Oct. 19, Mahany said.

William J. Keener presented a committee report on the renovation of the community house. It recommended bringing the community house up to the standard proposed by architect Gordon Phillips. Cost of this renovation was estimated at $52,000.

The commission set for 8 p.m., Oct. 19, public hearing on the school-city use of playgrounds for neighborhood parks. Although Novato and San Jose school districts and the city favor this plan, it has received some criticism, Mahany told the commission.

Signup for flag football will be at 9 a.m. Saturday at the Lynwood School. This program is for boys in the fifth through eighth grades, Mahany said.

Hearing Begins On $300 Robbery In San Rafael

Preliminary hearing for Clifford E. Palmer, 29, charged with a $300 robbery of a San Rafael market and with an attempted robbery of a liquor store the following day, began today in Marin Municipal Court.

Palmer, of 523 D Street, San Rafael, was arrested Sept. 27 after allegedly attempting to rob Paul A. Rickasecker, co-owner of the Original Fourth Street Liquor Store at 703 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Ricksecker, a retired policeman who grabbed the intruder and struck him over the head with a revolver, was a morning witness in the hearing. He identified clothing including a trench coat and black cap as similar to those worn by the robber.

Palmer also is charged in the Sept. 26 robbery of Lincoln Market at 1492 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael.

DELMAN D. SMITH
Quits Tam High Board

Delman Smith Quits Post On Tam High School Board

Dr. Delman D. Smith last night announced his resignation from the Tamalpais Union High School District Board, effective Nov. 2.

Smith, now a resident of Sausalito, said he was leaving the board because he was moving to Nicasio. Although he would still live in the district, he said he felt that Southern Marin should have a representative on the board.

The trustees voted to receive recommendations for Smith's replacement until Oct. 16 and to interview nominees between Oct. 20 and 30. Trustees said they would try to honor Smith's wish that the new appointee come from Southern Marin.

Board Chairman James M. Stubblebine said recommendations should be sent to Supt. Chester G. Carlisle.

Smith, a dentist and University of California graduate, was appointed to the board in 1956 after resignation of Alice P. Ehlen, also of Sausalito. He was re-elected in 1957 and 1961. The seat will be up for election again next April.

In the resignation letter, Smith thanked the board, staff and community for "allowing me to enrich my life, and I would hope that of my family, these past few years."

GOP Group Fighting Prop. 14

A statewide committee of Republicans opposed to Proposition 14, with State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) as chairman, was launched at a press conference today at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

Other members on the steering committee who met with Senator McCarthy included Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael), John Busterud of San Rafael, Mrs. Lee Sherry of Fairfax, and H. Putnam Livermore, formerly of Ross, now living in San Francisco.

"Our committee now represents more than 200 Republicans, all of whom are loyal party members," said McCarthy.

"Proposition 14 would repeal all anti-discrimination legislation in the sale or rental of housing and would write into the constitution a permanent prohibition against action in this field by elected representatives on the state and local level," the San Rafael legislator declared. "This is directly contrary to the historic principles of the Republican Party, the party of Abraham Lincoln."

Trial Starts In New Home Deposit Case

Two former officials of Seabreeze Construction Co. of San Rafael went on trial in Marin Superior Court today on identical charges of pocketing deposits for new homes in the Loma Verde tract near Novato.

They are Alfred M. Berger and John L. Richardson, both of San Diego. The men, represented by W. O. Weisstich, San Rafael attorney, waived the scheduled trial by jury and instead asked for trial before Judge Richard M. Sims Jr.

They are specifically charged with grand theft of down payments on homes purchased by Walter W. Seaman and Riley D. Robinson, in the tract.

A third defendant, Marvin S. Bailin, president of the firm, requested a severance of the indictment last Aug. 17. The motion was granted and he is scheduled for setting of trial date Oct. 16.

First witness today was Mrs. Robinson, who said she and her husband first met the defendant Richardson, sales representative for Seabreeze, at the company's office at 64 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael on Jan. 21, 1963. She said a $100 check was given as deposit on a home and lot, and that Richardson indicated the money would go into escrow.

Later, she said, the defendant's wife, Betty Richardson, told them an additional $1,000 was needed, a check for this amount was given, and they received a receipt for the money.

Joshua Thomas, deputy district attorney told the court he will prove that the money never reached escrow, but was instead placed in company funds.

Former San Anselmo Police Chief Donald Wood Marries

Former San Anselmo Police Chief Donald T. Wood and Amy J. Marshall of Mill Valley were married in Reno over the weekend, friends confired today.

Wood, 72, has been operating Life Investments Planning Corp. in Greenbrae, since he retired from police work in August, 1959, after 28 years as San Anselmo's first chief of police. He is still active in administering the Hub City's "Star Hall," a meeting place for peace officer and police reserve organizations which he founded, and still keeps up his regular golf play.

In obtaining the marriage license in Reno, both Wood and the new Mrs. Wood gave Mill Valley home addresses; she gave her age as 60.

Wood's office said today he is expected home Oct. 12.

Soon to challenge the 102-story Empire State Building as the world's tallest building are the two World Trade Center towers being constructed in Manhattan. Completion date for the 110-story buildings is 1970.

Ross Approves Sale Of Bonds

Trustees of the Ross School District yesterday gave formal authorization for sale of $350,000 in school construction bonds.

The bond issue was approved by voters Sept. 15.

Supt. William W. Monahan said he hopes the bonds can go on sale by April 1, 1965.

Next meeting of the school board will be Oct. 19.

Planners Reaffirm Stand Against Bank

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday reaffirmed its stand against commercial zoning to permit a bank beside Sir Francis Drake Boulevard between Marin Catholic High School and Wolfe Grade School, Kentfield.

The commission previously had opposed the zoning, but last Tuesday county supervisors announced their intention to rezone and sent the matter back to the commission for review.

Commissioners voted 5-1 against the change to commercial. Commissioner George Scott dissented and Chairman Niels Schultz Jr. abstained.

Mrs. John Morse, a resident of Wolfe Grade Road, presented a petition bearing 293 signatures opposing the commercial zoning.

Attorney Herbert Hawkins, representing the Kentfield Civic League, said there is no need for commercial zoning at the site. "It's a classic example of spot zoning," he said.

Supervisors approved rezoning on the grounds that the site be used only for a bank. A branch of the Tiburon National Bank is proposed for the location.

Attorney E. Warren McGuire, representing the applicant for the rezoning, Edward Halperin, said 125 residents had signed petitions approving a bank at the location.

The abutting property owners, the Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco and Kentfield School District, are not opposed, McGuire said.

Commissioner William F. Upton said he had seen no change since the commission previously denied the rezoning. "I don't think the corner is the best place for any commercial use," he said.

The commission's decision will be sent to the board of supervisors.

Smart Pooch Gets In House

SPRINGFIELD, Ky. (AP) — Barking didn't bring any response when George, a cocker spaniel, wanted to get back into the home of his master, Frank Carrico.

Finally, the pooch hit upon the system of standing on the top step and striking his tail against the door until someone opened it.

"That's all right," said Carrico, "but we never know if it's George or a neighbor knocking."

New Schedule Set At Marinwood Pool

The pool will be open from 10 a.m to 7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday until the weather no longer permits outdoor swimming, he said.

Burglary Attempt Probation Granted

Richard Lee Carroll, 20, San Rafael, was sentenced to 60 days in Marin County jail and placed on three years probation yesterday in Marin Superior Court for second degree burglary.

Carroll, of 332 Bayview Street, had pleaded guilty to attempting to steal eight tires from Brodie and Schwerin San Rafael Tire and Brake, 666 Irwin Street, on Aug. 11.

Maeanne Jackson of San Rafael has been named a member of the Campanile Singers at St. Mary of the Plains College in Dodge City, Kan.

Novato Area Residents Protest Concrete Plant

Residents of Bel-Marin Keys, south of the Black Point Cutoff, opposed temporary operation of a portable concrete batch plant in their area at a meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission yesterday.

One resident, Maurie Sisco, said the plant would burden the residents with air pollution.

Another, Richard Cordall, said plans for the plant "came as a sudden shock." He asked commissioners to give the home owners association a chance to meet and discuss the plant.

Augie Bertoli, representing the applicant, Canyon Concrete, said the plant would be used only to mix concrete for construction of new homes in the area.

The planning commission staff recommended that any temporary operation be limited to six months.

The commission continued the matter to Oct. 19, and suggested that the home owners and representative of Canyon Concrete meet and discuss the proposal.

Commissioners unanimously opposed a proposed change in zoning of Oak Manor Highlands, west of Fairfax, which would eliminate apartments from a five-acre area.

The City of Fairfax has opposed the apartment area and wants the entire 82-acre development zoned for single family residences.

Dan M. Miller, chairman of the Fairfax Planning Commission, said Fairfax is over-saturated with apartments.

Commissioners agreed to close off an Almonte road that reportedly has been used as a "hill climb" by motorcyclists, scooter riders, and by racing car drivers. They authorized a barricade at Morningsun Avenue that would halt vehicular traffic from using the unpaved upper portion of Rising Road.

The Marin County Planning Commission Also:

1. Granted Doreen Nelson a use permit for a care center for elderly people at 1100 and 1111 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield. The vote was 4-3, with Commissioners Eugene R. Trombley, William F. Upton and Felix M. Warbuz dissenting.

2. Approved architectural supervision for an office building east of Reed Boulevard, south of Knoll Lane, Alto.

3. Denied petition of John Hofer for rezoning from apartments to industrial use of a lot on Shoreline Highway between Gibson and Almonte Avenues, Tamalpais Valley, after receiving a recommendation for denial from the Almonte Improvement Club, represented by Ronald Burnett. The vote was 6-1, with Commissioner Trombley dissenting.

4. Received a letter from Marinwood Assn. requesting the commission to change the master plan for the area by requiring acre lots in undeveloped lands instead of the current minimum requirement of 10,000 square feet. Commissioners agreed to schedule a discussion on the proposal.

5. Approved a request to have a house trailer on property owned by Alvin Gambonini on the Marshall-Petaluma Road, five miles west of Wilson Hill-Hick's Valley Road.

6. Postponed until Oct. 19 an application for adjustment to allow Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. to permit installation of a radio transmitter near the Point Reyes lighthouse.

7. Re-classified from limited agricultural to limited roadside business a property owned by A. W. Morris on shoreline at the Inverness Highway and approved his request for permission to build and operate a self-service laundry and ice dispenser on the property.

Bank Vault Doors Have Some History

BERNALILLI, N. M. (AP) — Bank vault doors can have quite a history.

The one on the vault of the First State Bank here originally saw service in a Colorado Springs bank, constructed in 1882.

"It had to be hauled there by mule team," noted Robert Glish, bank manager. When the Colorado Springs bank got a new vault door recently, it "traded in the old one. The Bernalilli bank bought it for its new building.

It made its latest journey by truck.

Are Birchers Free To Criticize Headquarters?

A few days ago, we stated that the Birch Society is active in Marin, and members are ready to follow the dictates handed down from Robert Welch of Belmont, Mass.

Some Marin residents immediately reacted, politely pointing out that Birch members are free Americans and are not expected to follow suggestions contrary to their beliefs.

How can such an organization, operating in this free society of ours, be so dictatorial as to stifle free speech and silence dissenting opinions? In fact, doesn't Mr. Welch himself, and his appointed subordinates stress the fact that "there is no coercion" and "you don't have to become a member if you don't want to"? Yes, they stress those points.

And so the natural reaction is: "You see, they're no different from any other group like the Republican Party or the Democratic Party or the neighborhood tea society."

But most Americans, especially in a county like Marin, do not always take someone else's word at face value. They like to find out for themselves. They like to delve into the constitution or the by-laws of an organization to see how it actually operates.

You've probably heard about the Birch Society's "bible," The Blue Book. You may or may not have heard about the monthly "Bulletins" that are issued from Belmont to supplement the Blue Book.

Even a casual perusal of those publications will immediately show that here is an organization that is vastly different from the run of the mill "clubs" and "organizations."

It is run like an army, with a chain of command leading directly from Mr. Welch to his personally appointed lieutenants and down to the local chapters of some six to 20 members.

Each chapter has a chapter leader, not elected by the membership but appointed by headquarters.

In other words, the leadership does not represent the will of the members; the members accept the orders issued from headquarters, and if they don't like it, they can get out or will be forced out. Then they are free to suggest, advocate and criticize.

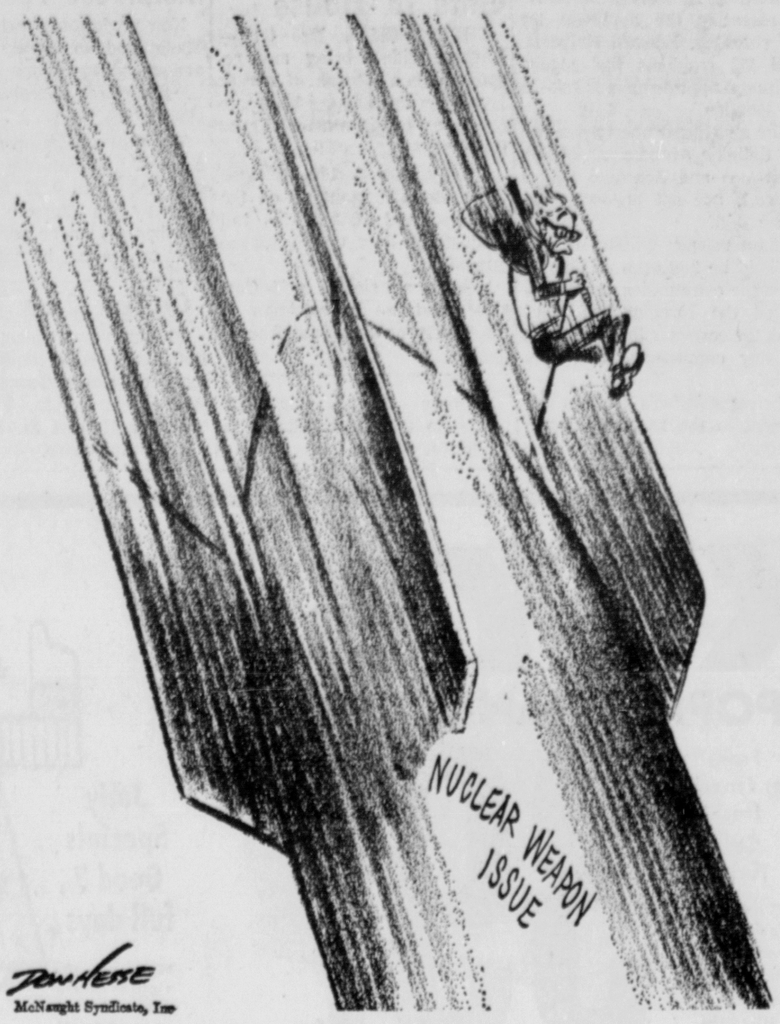

Sure, members can quibble over minor details or give dissenting views. But when dissenters begin to show lack of loyal support to the dictates from above, out they go.

And does the membership decide that a member is showing "lack of loyal support"? No. Headquarters decides. It's an efficient method. There is no need for prolonged debates or time-consuming elections.

If a citizen likes this type of organization, fine. But certainly, the Society should not be represented as an association of free-thinkers who are at liberty to speak out and write critical "letters-to-the-editor" for publication in the "Bulletin."

As we said before, we don't expect readers to take our statements at face value. Tomorrow we quote from Mr. Welch's publications.

Goldwater Issues Disservice To Cause Of Conservatism

WASHINGTON — The irony of the Goldwater candidacy is that he has embroiled it in two overpowering issues which are no part of conservative doctrine.

This means that if Sen. Barry M. Goldwater is defeated, it will look like a body blow to conservatism, but in reality the controlling reasons will have little, if anything, to do with true conservatism.

1. Most conservatives want to see the flow of power to Washington arrested and reversed. They want to see the federal government less pervasive and they espouse a concept of states' rights and local responsibility which will help do this.

BUT GOLDWATER has aligned himself with a concept of states' rights designed to enable state and local government to perpetuate racial discrimination. I submit that most Americans want to look to the future, not to the past, in dealing with the problems of racial relations and do not count it at all a violation of conservative principles to have federal law establish equality of treatment for all citizens.

A conservative concept of states' rights does not reject the role of the federal government in matters which must affect all citizens equally. Conservatives rightly want to limit the power of the federal government, but not to repudiate it when it comes to equal protection under the law.

TO TRY TO attach such a doctrine to conservatism is to do conservatism a grave disservice.

2. Goldwater also has got his candidacy irretrievably tied to his long-held idea that the president should delegate to the commander of NATO the use of tactical nuclear weapons.

This is the issue which, above all, has fixed Goldwater in the minds of many people as imprudent and impulsive in the matter of war and peace, life and death for the whole nation, perhaps for the whole world.

His may be a defensible proposition on which men can intelligently differ. It is just as unfair to attach the "war party" label to Goldwater as it is unfair for Goldwater to attach the "war party" label to President Lyndon B. Johnson. (He did this in his Fargo, N.D., speech when he said that the choice in this election was "between war through weakness and peace through preparedness.")

BUT HOWEVER honestly debatable the issue of nuclear control may be, it is totally unrelated to conservative doctrine. The present evidence is that it is grievously dragging down Goldwater's bid for the presidency in an emotional argument which has no bearing on the purposes which conservatives hoped his campaign would enhance.

Goldwater has rightly criticized the Democrats for the scare-everybody nuclear-political commercials. In hammering away at the issue of limited presidential delegation of some nuclear decisions, he says: "I want to educate the American people to lose some of their fear of the word 'nuclear'."

FAIR ENOUGH. We certainly don't want fear of nuclear war to paralyze U.S. resistance to aggression and atomic blackmail.

But surely the critical and central question is: Can one side use tactical nuclear weapons—which have a nuclear yield at least equal to the Hiroshima bomb—without expecting the other side to do the same? Do we then fight it out with tactical nuclear weapons on both sides or do we cross the brink to unlimited nuclear war? Can a president delegate part of this chain-reaction of nuclear decisions?

On both nuclear control and the right of states to preserve racial discrimination Goldwater has involved his fate in issues which do not stem from a conservative philosophy of government. If Goldwater is defeated, it will be more from these issues than from anything else. And the cause of conservatism will be disserviced.

Student Asks For 'Return Of Rights'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Why does the College of Marin need a student government?

Before school opened this semester, the college administration removed the cigarette machine from the student union. They took this action entirely on their own. They did not discuss it with any of the student leaders elected for just this purpose.

As school began, students wondered what was meant by the administration's actions. Rumors, questions, speculations ran rife. The Tower Times, the student newspaper, ran a small article Sept. 25, explaining the position of the administration, as interpreted by Irwin Diamond, dean of students.

The Executive Council of the Associated Students, headed by president Lloyd Stasiowski, met Sept. 29 to discuss the problem. The administration still did not attempt to reach the students with their reasons for their action. With little to go on, the council unanimously passed a resolution requesting the return of the cigarette machine to the cafeteria.

In the resolution, the council brought up the fact that the approximately 4,000 adults attending COM's night classes were now without a place to purchase cigarettes. The resolution also noted that income derived from the sale of cigarettes on campus went into the ASCOM treasury, and that by removing the machine, this not insignificant income was lost. In addition, the resolution had the support of more than 1,400 students, who responded to a petition circulated on campus by student leaders.

The council presented this resolution to the college's Board of Trustees. The Board voted it down, 3-2.

The issue has now transcended the relatively minor one of the inconvenience of not being able to buy cigarettes on campus. We are concerned that the administration, during this entire period, never once suggested compromise. The administration never once, until the student resolution was defeated, attempted an explanation of their action, or told why they acted without even notifying the student government of their plans.

When the administration finally presented their argument, students learned that the controversy had its origins in the U.S. Surgeon General's January report on the adverse effects of smoking on health. They learned that the administration was concerned with the availability of cigarettes to the approximately 400 students under age 18. They did not hear an answer to their arguments; their opinions were tacitly ignored; their alternate solutions went undiscussed.

While the arguments over the fine points of cigarette smoking go unresolved, I find there is one point easily overlooked. The surface issue may be cigarette smoking, campus dress or card playing, but the real question is whether or not students have a real voice in their own affairs. If every problem, major or minor, is decided in as arbitrary a fashion, solely by the administration, then we find no real reason for maintaining the front of a student government. We have no desire to exist as a rubber stamp organization, simply to act as fiscal distributors for athletics, dances, conferences, etc. We are not pacified by fine titles, plaques, medals or pins handed out to us at the end of a semester as student body officers. Our history of freedom at the College of Marin and our reputation as one of the finest junior colleges in the state provide the basis for our desire for honest student-administration relations.

We have respect for our administration—it has given us the opportunity to become what we are by their willingness to work with us. Suddenly, that willingness, that freedom, is taken away.

We ask now for a return of our rights as students: to cooperate with our administration; to be treated as people; and to have our opinions considered with the dignity and respect they are worthy of.

Novato VFW And Old Cemetery

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We read with interest Mr. Newell's column in last week's paper about the city of Novato buying the old cemetery and intending to make a Memorial Park out of it.

His comment, that he thought the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars as well as other organizations in town should help the city clean up the cemetery now, instead of talking about it so much, was a little uncalled-for, as far as the members of Donald V. Westlund Post No. 7816 of Novato, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is concerned.

Who does he think braved the poison oak and cleaned off the graves of all the veterans buried there, each year? The men of Donald V. Westlund Post did it, and the women of the Donald V. Westlund Auxiliary placed flowers and a flag on each grave every Memorial Day. Admittedly, it was only once a year, but until this year that was more than anyone else did in that old cemetery. It has been done every year since the post and auxiliary were instituted in 1949.

FARM PROBLEM, PART II

Views Differ On Finding Workers For 1965 Harvest

(Second in a three-part series on the farm labor future in California, in light of a recent report by the University of California and recent statements by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.)

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Can organized labor, state government and agriculture combine efforts to recruit sufficient temporary and supplemental farm workers to harvest the state's crops in 1965 after the bracero program has been bid "adios?"

Organized labor says yes, but indicates it must be on its terms. Governor Brown says yes but wages will have to be raised. The University of California, in a recent report, doesn't give an outright "no" answer, but lists a lot of reasons why it wouldn't work, despite higher wages.

THE COUNCIL of California Growers said an extensive seven-month recruitment program in other states fizzled.

And past experience has shown pretty conclusively that few domestic workers will stay long in the fields to do stoop labor in plus-100-degree temperatures that are common at harvest time.

Asked recently if he felt organized labor had a program for recruiting farm workers or making the work more attractive, Brown answered: "But, of course, they have a program too. It's collective bargaining with labor unions, payment of minimum wages, workmen's compensation, unemployment insurance—all of these things are their program which the farmers are not ready to accept."

EVIDENCE OF organized labor's insistence on its terms came some months ago in the Modesto area. The Growers Harvesting Committee of Modesto had been carrying on a domestic recruitment program for some time, with its employment opportunity bulletin distributed by the Department of Employment. The committee charged the department halted distribution of the bulletin after objections from Thomas Pitts, secretary-treasurer of the State Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO.

Brown says growers will have to pay higher wages.

"The employer must pay his employee a living wage, and because he says he can't compete does not entitle him to steal the product of the employee's work," Brown said on Aug. 18.

HIS DEPARTMENT of finance report on personal income of mid-September noted farmers were the only group to have lower income in the second quarter of 1964 than a year earlier. It said cash receipts were lower and production costs were higher.

The University of California said it would be almost impossible for individual farmers or groups of farmers to determine by experimentation the number of additional workers obtainable at higher wage rates. It said such experimentation probably would just draw farm workers off other farms.

Some have felt the use of students might be the solution but the university pointed out much seasonal farm work must be done at a time when most youth are in school.

SOME GROWERS would favor use of Public Law 414, a broader importation program. Almost 60,000 aliens entered the U.S. under this law in 1963, including 14,166 Canadian lumberjacks, 7,558 entertainers, 7,168 musicians and professors and 3,549 corporation trainees.

But other growers say there would be no way to keep such imports in agriculture and they would drift to the cities, replacing other domestic workers and forcing them on the welfare rolls.

Roosevelt Will Speak In Marin

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Los Angeles) will address the annual Dinner for Israel of Congregation Rodef Sholom of Marin at 6:30 p.m. Sunday at the congregation's temple.

Roosevelt, who will be honored for his support of the young middle eastern nation, will report on the most recent of his nine trips there.

Sale of tickets to the dinner will aid Bay Area branch of the State of Israel Bonds organization.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Thurmond Turned Down Mrs. Johnson

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Democratic campaign managers are going to great lengths to fanfare Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson's whistle - stop swing through eight Southern states, but they are carefully saying nothing about one setback in their elaborate plans.

This was the first lady's failure to persuade a redoubtable Dixie leader to join her entourage on the special electioneering train.

Sen. Strom Thurmond (S.C.), who recently made political history by bolting to the GOP, politely but explicitly rebuffed Mrs. Johnson when she invited him in a personal telephone call.

IN ADDITION to being turned down, the first lady also got a hint to Thurmond's subsequent bolt to Sen. Barry M. Goldwater. This possibility seemed to disturb Mrs. Johnson far more than the declination. She repeatedly urged Thurmond to "do nothing rash."

Following are highlights of this interesting backstage episode:

"Senator, I am planning a campaign swing through the South for Lyndon," began Mrs. Johnson, "and I want you to accompany the girls and me. We are going by train, and a number of your friends will be along. Both Lyndon and I are most anxious that you come, too."

"THANK YOU very much," replied Thurmond with his customary courtliness. "It's very gracious of you to invite me. But I'm afraid I am compelled to decline. There is nothing personal in that, of course. As you know, I have always been very fond of you and your charming daughters.

"But I can't go along with certain of your husband's policies, especially in foreign affairs. Very frankly, in my opinion these policies are working to the disadvantage of our country all over the world."

After a long pause, Mrs. Johnson exclaimed. "Now, Senator, you aren't thinking of doing something rash, are you?"

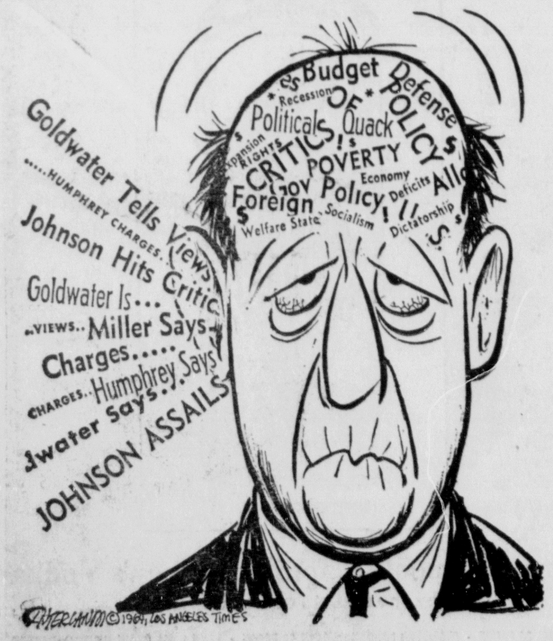

"I am reviewing my whole position," said Thurmond, "and giving it the most earnest thought. I cannot go against my conscience. I never have. Vital and basic principles are at stake in this election and must be faced squarely and honorably."

SEN. PIERRE SALINGER is worried about his campaign. The one-time White House press secretary is bombarding national Democratic campaign managers with urgent pleas for help. This is a big change, as several months ago he was being quoted by friends as saying Johnson would run on his coattails. Now it's the other way around, with Salinger clinging to the president's coattails. Salinger and his lieutenants anxiously want Johnson to spend more time in California to give his lagging electioneering a shot in the arm.

Rep. James Roosevelt (D-Calif.) is definitely eyeing the next Los Angeles mayoralty race as a stepping-stone to another try for governor. Jimmy now has considerable seniority in the House, but intimates indicate he is looking for "greener pastures."

Despite former San Francisco Mayor George Christopher's disclaimers, he is planning to seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination in 1966. He is making no secret of that to close friends and political backers.

IN "TRAVELS With Charley," Nobel Prize - winning novelist John Steinbeck tells of his talk with a back-country storekeeper. Why, wondered Steinbeck, have Americans ceased arguing violently about public affairs? "Well, sir," philosophized the storekeeper, "you can raise a wind any time over the Pirates or the Yankees, but I guess our best bet left is the Russians. Nobody can find fault with you if you take after the Russians. Man has a fight with his wife, he belts the Russians. Yes, sir, those Russians got a load to carry. Maybe everybody needs them! I'll bet even in Russia they need Russians. Only there they call it Americans."

AT THE CONCLUSION of a concert at Carnegie Hall, narrates ad magnate David Ogilvy, Walter Damrosch asked Rachmaninoff what sublime thoughts had flitted through his mind as he scanned the audience during the playing of his concerto. Rachmaninoff's frank answer was, "I was counting the house."

"MY FATHER can't come to the phone now," a little girl told a persistent caller. "He's at the TV set watching the ignited nations."

Here Are Several More Ways To Tell If You Are Getting Old

NEW YORK (AP) — Here are some ways to tell if you are middle-aged:

The most fun you have all day is taking off your shoes when you come home from the office.

You don't like to see movies that have a sad ending.

THE DENTIST tells you that seeing him twice a year isn't enough.

You don't have to let out your belt another notch, but you feel more comfortable if you do.

Everytime you buy anything in a men's store you give the salesman a long lecture on how much more expensive things are now than they used to be.

YOU SPEND MORE time visiting sick friends in the hospital and going to funerals.

When you break a shoelace, instead of throwing it away you tie it together and go on using it.

The fellows around the office water cooler always seem to have newer jokes than you do.

It used to take you 20 minutes to get a haircut. Now you can get one in 10.

You get a little winded when you have to bend down to tune the television set.

YOU'D RATHER watch the baseball game on the home screen than go out to the park. Who needs all that fresh air anyway?

It takes longer to wake up in the morning, and longer to fall asleep at night.

Your medicine chest gets more crowded. You also read the medical column in your paper daily, even if it discusses a disease you don't have. Who knows? You may get it later.

INSTEAD OF complaining when your wife is slow in getting dressed for an evening out, you just stretch out on the sofa and take a nap.

When you meet the big boss, he calls you by your first name and then inquires how you're feeling.

You give up your weekly night out with the boys, as your old poker pals seem to be getting kind of dull.

YOU'D RATHER break your leg than go dancing.

The doctor tells you if you got a little more exercise, you'd have more pep. But you and he both know that if you have to get pep the hard way you'd just as soon do without it.

At vacation time you'd rather sit in your own back yard than go on a trip.

Whenever you start reminiscing about your war experiences, some smart aleck always pipes up, "Which war was that, Pop?"

That's middle age.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By THERON NEWELL

The Quiet Of Grant Avenue Shattered By Squeal Of Pigs

GRANT AVENUE in Novato is usually a quiet street at 8 o'clock in the morning. An occasional car goes up the street and once in awhile there is the noise of a bicycle tire on the sidewalk.

This peace was completely shattered the other morning by the loud protesting squealing of pigs. These squeals echoed up and down the silent canyon between the buildings. They were unmistakable pig squeals of animals that were being treated in a very unaccustomed manner.

The cause of all this commotion was located in front of the Crocker - Citizen's Bank. Parked in front of the bank was a pickup truck and unloading two pigs from it was Ralph Worden, 14, member of the Novato Aggies 4-H Club.

RALPH CARRIED the two pigs into the bank, where they were put in a small pen in the bank as part of the 4-H Week display.

Just in case someone misunderstands the violent squealing of the pigs, Ralph probably had made pets of them, and pig-like, they objected to being carried around. Later in the day they slept peacefully in the bank while business went on all around them.

Many of the stores in Novato had displays of the 4-H work during the week. When one sees the clothing that was made, the food that was preserved, the mechanical and manual skills shown in the variety of useful objects made by these boys and girls, one gets a comfortable feeling. As long as the next generation is able to do these things as well as these young people, the future of the country is fairly well assured.

IN CASE ANYONE is wondering, Novato still does not have a city seal.

Yes, the former council adopted one which was not liked by some people, two councilmen in particular. Councilman Lucile Cannon helped get petitions signed against it. Then, after the city elections when the council changed, the seal was unsealed.

Lucile (some say it should be spelled Luseal) Cannon and Douglas M. Merrill were appointed to a council committee to study the seal and make a recommendation.

Merrill stated that they were still studying designs and ideas for the seal and had not yet come up with a recommendation for a new seal.

The old seal showed an Indian village of teepee - like structures and the city hall of Novato with a gavel and tomahawk crossed in the foreground.

WE SUSPECT the janitor at Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church was responsible for the following item in the church bulletin. He apparently grew tired of cleaning up the church bulletins from the floor where they were dropped after being read.

From Our Lady of Loretto Parish Letter of Sept. 27, we quote:

"To Sunday litterbugs: This bulletin now has a higher circulation in our church than any other paper. It beats white Kleenex, 2 to 1; pink Kleenex, 3 to 1, and blue Kleenex, 10 to 1."

Founder's Day Set At Seminary

Isam B. Hodges, of San Leandro, founder and first president of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, will give the special address at the seminary's first founder's day ceremonies at 9:50 a.m. tomorrow in Broadus Hall.

The seminary was founded 20 years ago in Oakland and moved to Strawberry Point in 1959.

J. L. Brantley of Bakersfield, former seminary trustee, will present greetings. The founder's day is planned to be held annually hereafter, according to John Witherspoon, editorial assistant.

CROCKER-CITIZENS MOVES TO 'OTHER HALF'

All functions of Crocker-Citizens National Bank at Fourth and B Streets, San Rafael were transferred from the last half of the old building to the first half of the new building last week without dropping an entry in bookkeeping. New drive-in tellers' windows at the Third Street entrance have been put into operation. Inside tellers are located in new temporary quarters to be expanded later. Office changeover marked the passage of one year's construction activity. Entire building will be occupied by next March, with interior finishing and work on the new vault stretching into late spring.

New Automotive Parts Store To Open Nov. 1 In Novato

A new automotive parts store selling at retail, wholesale—and speed equipment for hot-rodders—will open about Nov. 1 at 871 Sweetzer Avenue, Novoto, by Maurice Michl and John Hoekman.

Michl has been foreman for Locke Plumbing Co., Novato. Hoekman has the Hi-Fi Drive-In Restaurant on Mirabella Avenue, which he will continue to operate.

Name of the new business will be M and H Automotive Parts.

NOVATO COIFFEUR Don Sparrow was a double winner in this year's hair-styling contests. He took first prize in the open creative statewide contest, and another first in the Marin County competition. Wife Barbara was his model in both cases.

A FORMER San Rafael boy who has made good in southern latitudes is Hugh H. Foley, graduate of San Rafael High School class of 1954, and a graduate of University of California.

He's been made manager of the Bank of Brazil in Rio de Janeiro after only a year's employment there.

THREE MARIN MEN have received new appointments at California Research Corp. laboratories in Richmond.

Dr. W. Alan Sweeney and Dr. Ralph E. Jentoft — both residents of Terra Linda—have been made research associates. Dr. Sweeney is in the chemicals research division; Dr. Jentoft is in the laboratory services division.

Norman J. Peterson of San Rafael has been made engineering associate in the process planning section.

LEO E. SULLIVAN of Tiburon has been promoted to manager at Bank of America's Market-Van Ness motor branch in San Francisco.

Bank Share Prices Drop

Trading prices of shares in new Marin banks have followed the course of their counterparts in other sections of the country and have dropped to a level considered by market observers to be "more realistic."

Marin's three local banks—Bank of Marin, Redwood National Bank and Tiburon National Bank—all offered their shares originally at $20. By last March, bid prices had moved up to $35, $43 and 26 respectively.

Subsequently Bank of Marin reached a bid high of $37; Redwood National split its shares two for one, with the split shares reaching a $22 high, and the newer Tiburon National Bank saw its shares bid at $30.

According to recent over-the-counter quotations, trading prices dropped during September, with Bank of Marin shares bid at $31, $33 asked; Redwood National $14.50 bid, $15 asked; Tiburon National down to $20 bid, $23 asked.

Investment counselor Robert Miller of the San Francisco firm of Edwards and Miller noted that "prices of new bank shares in all locations had gone too high, and a reduction was to be expected."

Jess J. France Jr., resident manager of York and Co., San Rafael, said: "It's a case of the glamour of new bank stocks wearing down, and the pendulum swinging in the other direction."

In Mill Valley, Charles Francis of Francis and Miller said his firm handled trading on some local new bank shares and that "basically the stocks are good."

Bank's Earnings

SAN FRANCISCO — Wells Fargo Bank's per share earnings through Sept. 30 were $1.84, compared to $1.67 for the same period last year, it was reported today by Ransom M. Cook, president.

Chrysler Sales

DETROIT — Chrysler Corp. passenger car production for September (U.S. plants only) totaled 112,567. Dodge truck production for the month totaled 11,524.

Council In Belvedere Fears Winter Floods

The rains are coming, and the Belvedere City Council last night noted that it looks like a bad year for flooding in the Cove Road area.

City Mgr. William L. Cavalli was instructed to "prepare to protect" area residents from waters of Belvedere Lagoon, rains, high tides and drainage from nearby hills, which for years have combined to flood the area.

Councilmen noted that the level of the artificial lagoon should be carefully watched and lowered by developers if high tides in Richardson Bay coincide with rain storms. Councilmen at first jocularly mentioned sand bass, but were considering them more seriously after noting that details of a proposed drainage project would not be settled for at least two weeks.

Though the county already has levied a 16-cent operating tax for the proposed flood control district, the cities of Tiburon and Belvedere and the Tiburon Sanitary District have not yet completed their cooperative plans. A report on the project is expected at the Oct. 15 Tiburon City Council meeting.

The Belvedere City Council Also:

1. Postponed to Nov. 2 a decision on traffic routing at the Cove-Lagoon roads intersection with Tiburon Boulevard, so councilmen may judge the effect on traffic of opening the Mar West cut-off opposite the intersection.
2. Deferred to Nov. 2 also a request by Fred G. Zelinsky for permission to construct a service station at Mar West Street on Tiburon Boulevard.
3. Agreed to check rates of other garbage companies after hearing the Mill Valley Garbage Co., now serving the city, is requesting a rise in fees amounting to 30 cents a month for one householder garbage can and 60 cents a month for collecting from two cans.
4. Noted that newly hired Tiburon building-zoning administrator Leslie Gross may also do some work in Belvedere, under a contract between the cities.
5. Agreed to trade a small piece of land with Donald W. Davis so he can construct a new house where an old house now stands over a one-foot wide strip of city-owned land in tideland off 1 Bellevue Avenue.
6. Postponed discussion of annexation of the city to the Tiburon Sanitary District until the district's three newly elected directors have a chance to become familiar with the proposal.
7. Approved uniform building, electrical and plumbing codes.

Resident Loses Out In Bid To Rename Street For Self

P. H. McFarland of 101 Lyford Court, Strawberry Point, lost out on his bid to have a street named after him yesterday.

Marin County Planning Commission was considering changing the name of Lyford Court to Neider Drive when a letter from McFarland was read.

He suggested that since he is the only resident of Lyford Court, the street be re-named McFarland Drive or Lane.

Commissioners mulled it over briefly but voted for the name Neider Drive, which was suggested by the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District.

"Who's Neider?" a commissioner asked. "He's the developer," came the answer. (Developer Samuel P. Neider died after starting an extensive improvement project on Strawberry Point, part of which has since been abandoned.)

The change was made to avoid confusion with other streets in the area having similar names, Lyford Drive and Lyford Terrace.

Talented Dolphin Makes More Pay Than Merchants

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP) — Haig, Port Elizabeth's performing dolphin, earns about $5,600 a month — more than most businessmen in this coastal industrial city.

She has made about $86,000 —free of entertainment tax—and has been seen by about 350,000 people since her debut early last year, according to officials at the Port Elizabeth Oceanarium. An average of 600 people watch her daily.

Now people overseas will have a chance to see her on film. An advertising film for a soft drink company has been made of her going through her paces.

Sore Feet Justified By Girls In White

The girls in white in one section fastened a pedometer to Barbara Matuszak at the start of her shift recently. Eight hours later, it had registered 7.2 miles.

Quite A Record

FRANKFORT, Ky (AP) — Few men in politics can claim Kelly Smither's record. When he retired this year as Franklin Circuit Court clerk, he ended a half-century in government — after winning every race he entered.

SHE'LL FIGHT TO KEEP HER BARRY SIGN

LIVERMORE (AP)—The Livermore City Council warned a resident last night that she faced legal action unless she removed a Goldwater-for-President sign from her property.

Officials said Mrs. Ann Burton posted the sign last Saturday in defiance of a city ordinance banning all but "for sale" signs on residential property. Mrs. Burton said the sign will stay.

Marshall Krause, an American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) attorney, told Mrs. Burton the ordinance was unconstitutional and that the ACLU would defend her.

Easy Catch For Fisherman

CALHOUN, Ky. (AP) — Gordon McLaughlin doesn't need a lot of fancy equipment when he goes fishing.

He found a live five and three-quarter inch catfish in his rain-soaked orchard, a mile from the nearest pond or stream.

He still hasn't decided how it got there.

Well, Cabin No Longer Furnished

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Rose C. Edwards had a real problem in trying to rent a cabin she advertised as being furnished.

Others will have them later in the season. Why wait? Latest Fall styles for the well dressed man

Councilman's Ire Delays Decision On Park Plans

With Councilman Louis H. Baar demanding to know what the city was getting for its money, the San Rafael City Council last night declined to approve hiring a San Francisco landscape architect firm to do a master plan for Freitas Park above Terra Linda High School.

The council instead asked that each of three firms considered by the parks and recreation commission be required to submit a written outline of how it would go about drawing up the plan.

Baar hotly complained to Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota that he should have invited planning consultant Daniel P. Coleman, who acted as city planner earlier this year, to submit an estimate.

Rodota replied that the commission had given Coleman's firm some thought, but had excluded it because it is "not a landscape firm."

Baar, however, was not satisfied with this. Recalling that Coleman had "baled us out" when the council threw out preliminary plans on Victor Jones Park because bids ran far above estimates, Baar reiterated that Coleman should have been shown "common courtesy."

Baar expressed fears the city might again have to toss out a costly master plan and call for someone to "bale the city out."

Rodota insisted the commission had no intention of allowing this to happen again. When pressed for specific details of why commissioners had chosen Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck of San Francisco over two other companies, however, Rodota failed to satisfy the council.

Present from the recommended firm was architect Asa Hanamoto, who took emphatic issue with several council members' request that his company provide "free-hand sketches" to give the city an idea of their work.

"In our profession we do not consider it ethical to give free sketches, any more than you would ask a doctor or lawyer to give free samples of his work. You have to go on their reputation. I feel very strongly about this," said Hanamoto.

The company's estimated cost for a master plan of the park was $4,000, twice that of either of the two other firms considered by the parks and recreation commission. Hanamoto said his company would work closely with various city departments as it went along, rather than presenting a final "package" after its work was done.

Baar's ire was further aroused when Rodota made a "horseback estimate" that development of the park would ultimately cost from $150,000 to $175,000, but Rodota quickly added this would be spent over several years' time.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen finally reminded the council that no one yet knows the exact acreage of the park.

All agreed to table the matter until after Nov. 1, meanwhile asking for written proposals—but no sketches—from the three firms.

Free Enterprise For Surplus Doesn't Go

ATLANTA (UPI) — Sheriff's deputies said Roy Hay, 52, found another use for surplus commodity grain.

They arrested Hay and confiscated the commodity meal and a 300 gallon still in a rural area near Atlanta. Officers also found eight gallons of illegal whiskey.

Mines Get Safer

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky has not had a mine accident in which five or more fatalities resulted in 18 years. There was only one fatality in Kentucky coal mine accidents for each 2.3 million tons mined during 1963 — the best record in the 84-year history of the state mines and minerals department.

Total Performance 1965
Ford Galaxie 500 LTD 4-Door Hardtop

Only 17 cars (and they're all Fords) offer all these exciting new features for 1965!

From a new series of limousine-like ultra-luxurious Fords (Galaxie 500 LTD's)... sporty XL hardtops and convertibles... to the most dramatically improved wagons in 15 years... there are 17 full-size Fords to choose from. This is the widest selection in the whole popular-priced field. And these Fords offer features you won't find on other cars—at any price.

New body-frame-suspension system
You'll feel—and hear—the result after just a few minutes behind the wheel. These are the quietest Fords ever built... and the strongest... and the smoothest. Their all-new frame, body and suspensions virtually seal off the passenger compartment from noise and road shock.

New—automatic transmissions are all 3-speed

New 240-cu. in. Big Six
Gives you low gas bills, but high performance. Bigger 6-cylinder engine than in any competing car. (V-8 powered Fords are livelier this year, too.)

New Safety-Convenience control panel
This luxury option lets you reach out to the instrument panel and lock all doors with the flick of a switch. Also: lights warn you when fuel's low, doors are ajar, and remind you that seat belts are unfastened.

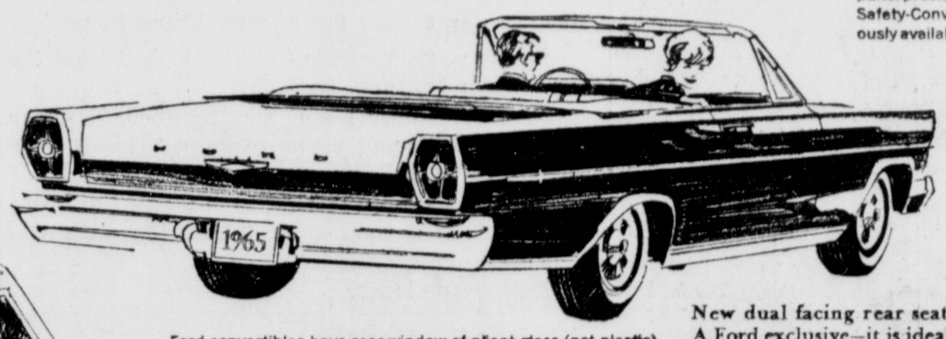

New and bigger trunk
Generous room for various sizes and kinds of luggage as illustrated... or room for four big 2-suiters upright.

Most usable luggage space ever in a Ford

New "swept-back" instrument panel provides more room. Optional Safety-Convenience controls previously available only on Thunderbird.

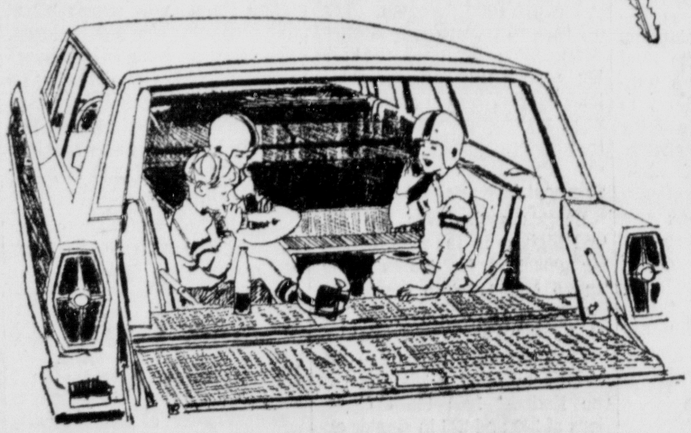

Ford convertibles have rear window of pliant glass (not plastic)

Standard in 4-door hardtops: Silent-Flo ventilation system

Unique reversible key works either side up

Only in Ford wagons: dual facing rear seats

New dual facing rear seats in Ford wagons
A Ford exclusive—it is ideal for families up to 10. Seats fold down to give you 7.6 cu. ft. of lockable, below-deck storage space.

New reversible key
No more fumbling with an armful of packages, trying to get the key right side up. Ford's exclusive new reversible key is the same on both edges... works no matter which side is up.

New interior spaciousness
Lower transmission tunnel than in many competing cars... new "swept-back" instrument panel... and other interior redesigning make these the most comfortable Fords ever.

New array of courtesy lights
Illuminated doorway, ash tray and interior. A real convenience for night driving.

Take a test drive
From special new 15" low-profile tires (better traction—longer tire life)... to new windows with stylish curved side glass (more shoulder room)... the list of new features goes on and on. The total result is something you simply have to see, feel, touch. Come in soon.

Sadecki Opposes Ford In Opener

By JACK HAND

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Ray Sadecki, a 23-year-old lefty with his first big winning year, will tote a tremendous burden tomorrow as the opening pitcher for the underdog St. Louis Cardinals against Whitey Ford, the New York Yankees' cagey veteran.

Ford's experience under fire is one reason why the Yanks are 17-10 favorites to take it all and 6-5 in the opener. It will be Whitey's 22nd series start.

The Series schedule, which calls for a day off for travel after the second and fifth games, permits the first game pitchers to make three starts if it goes the seven-game limit.

Because Johnny Keane, Cardinal manager, had to use Bb Gibson in relief in Sunday's final game to clinch the National League pennant, he is forced to start Sadecki, a 20-game winner who was knocked out of the box Saturday by the New York Mets.

It figures to be the Yanks' Big Three of Ford, Mel Stottlemyre and Jim Bouton against the Cardinals' trio of Sadecki, Gibson and Curt Simmons. Nobody else is likely to start.

Al Downing, normally a regular, probably will be in the Yankee bullpen which will be hurting without Pedro Ramos, the stopper of the last month of the season.

Ramos is not eligible for the Series because he was acquired from Cleveland too late to be placed on the list which closes Sept. 1. The absence of the handsome Cuban may be fatal to Manager Yogi Berra, who learned to lean more and more on Ramos in the stretch drive to his first pennant.

"It all depends on how things are going," said Berra in New York yesterday after he sent the Yanks through a light drill at Yankee Stadium.

Tony Kubek, regular Yankee shortstop, and Julian Javier, the Cards' second baseman, were on the doubtful list because of injuries.

Kubek, in fact, very likely will miss the entire Series because of a jammed right wrist that has kept him out of action for two weeks.

Javier suffered a badly bruised left hip Saturday in a collision with the Mets' Bob Taylor. The Cards were optimistic about his playing but had Dal Maxvill ready. Maxvill, normally a weak hitter, came through with flying colors in the weekend games.

Phil Linz, the Yanks' harmonica-playing rascal, undoubtedly will start at shortstop. Linz has been getting key hits in the Yanks' late drive.

Speed will be on the side of the Cards with Lou Brock, their base-stealing whiz, Curt Flood and Javier the best of the lot. They will put pressure on Elston Howard, the Yanks' fine catcher, just as the dashing Dodgers of Los Angeles did last year in a four-straight sweep.

Both clubs scheduled tune-ups at Busch Stadium today with the Yanks, who were flying in, due to follow the Cardinals Busch Stadium, with its pavilion in right field only 310 feet from the plate, provides a fine target for left-handed sluggers like Roger Maris, Mickey Mantle and Joe Pepitone of the Yanks and Bill White and Brock of the Cards.

RAY SADECKI
Card starter

It will be the fifth series meeting of the Yanks and Cards, who split the first four. Berra is the first rookie manager to win a pennant since Eddie Dyer of the Cards in 1946, the year they beat the Boston Red Sox.

Full-Scale Olympic Donnybrook Brewing

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

TOKYO (AP) —The Emperor of Japan declared open the full meeting of the International Olympic Committee today with customary pomp, but behind the scenes a full-scale donnybrook brewed.

Tomorrow's working sessions will be stormy. Soviet Russia will probably raise the GANEFO issue, East Germany wants full membership in the IOC instead of sharing a team with West Germany, and the election of the international president will be announced.

Track and swimming athletes who took part in the unauthorized GANEFO — The Games Of The Emerging Forces — at Jakarta, Indonesia, have been suspended by their international federations thereby keeping them out of the Olympics.

As a result, North Korea and Indonesia may not compete here at all, but observers believe the Russians may raise the issue in the full committee meeting and possibly seek to override the ban.

Russia, too, favors East Germany's full membership in the IOC but Avery Brundage of Chicago, IOC president who mediated the German dispute in 1952 and created a single, all-German team, has always considered this sports unification as one of the outstanding successes of the Olympic movement.

All the ballots in the contest between Brundage, seeking re-election as IOC president, and his only rival, Lord David Burghley, Marquis of Exeter, are here under seal and all that remains is the announcement.

Brundage is a stern upholder of pure amateurism. The English nobleman is considered to be more liberal. Advance hints point to a narrow Brundage victory.

OPENING CEREMONIES

Virtually all the 8,000 athletes from the 98 nations expected to compete here are now on hand for the opening ceremonies Saturday, Oct. 10. The Games end Oct. 24.

This is a record-breaking Games in many ways. It is the largest of modern times, it is the first ever held in Asia, it will be the first which will be televised live almost around the world thanks to the Syncom satellite poised over the Pacific, and it is the first on which the vast sum of two billion dollars has been spent preparing the facilities.

Much of this, of course, was for permanent improvements such as super-highways in Tokyo and a high speed train to Osaka, but the stadiums and playing fields here are unmatched.

There are other firsts for these games that mean so much to Japan. For the first time swimming races will be decided by touching electric panels at the finish line. The new trans-Pacific cable is being used for the first time to carry out news of the Games, and pictures are being sent by direct cable both to Europe and North America. For the first time judo and women's volley ball are being contested.

The BULLPEN

Cards Best Representatives Of N.L., But We Pick N.Y. In Five

CONNOLLY

Two types of reasoning bob up as the World Series is about to start.

The first and easiest way is to analyze both leagues, make up your mind which loop you think is faster, and then go with the flag winner in whatever league you think the best.

The other way of figuring a possible World Series winner is to examine the condition, physically and mentally, of the contending teams.

Some pennant winning teams are near exhaustion from pressure in the stretch; others are crippled in vital positions and still others have a burned out pitching staff that went all out to clinch the pennant and then find themselves unable to offer any help in the zero hour.

This year's Series offers quite a challenge in that both winning clubs had to fight right down to the last day of the season to win.

Both the Yanks and the Cards are lucky clubs—the Yanks because Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris are in shape and hitting well, the Cards because they escaped without any key players being hurt as they enter the big showdown.

IN THE existing circumstances—the tough pennant race finish, St. Louis is probably the best representative the National League could have in the Series. They have a pretty good ball club and are hitting well. At least they are not burned out.

But the Yanks will be the favorites. They always are because they are the Yankees. Actually, they aren't quite the club they were in past years, but they still have some power and should have better pitching than the Cards, particularly with a day off between the second and the third game and the fifth and the sixth.

This sort of set-up will let Jim Bouton pitch three games if necessary. I think he is far and away the best Yankee pitcher. He started 1964 slowly, but has finished strongly, to make it 17 won and 13 lost.

OTHER STARTERS are likely to be Whitey Ford, Al Downing and a young fellow named Mell Stottlemyre, who has been something of a late season sensation. He's won 8 and lost 2.

I imagine Yogi Berra, Yank manager, will open with Bouton in St. Louis and save Ford for the first game in Yankee stadium.

One of the best reasons for the Yankees being in the World Series is they have a slick infield. They have a great fielding unit with Clete Boyer at third, Bobby Richardson at second, Tony Kubek at shortstop and Joe Pepitone at first.

THE CARDS likewise also present a great infield, second only to the Yanks. They have Bill White at first, Julian Javier at second, Dick Groat at shortstop and Ken Boyer at third. Compared with the Yankees, it is pretty much of a standoff. I think the Cards, if anything have a shade in hitting strength.

Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and either John Blanchard, Hector Lopez or Tom Tresh in a short series matches, and I think equals if not betters, Curt Flood, Lou Brock and Marty Keough or Mike Shannon.

Behind the plate Elston Howard of the Yankees and Tim McCarver of the Cards are pretty much of a standoff with the edge going to Howard.

It adds up to this: When you play the Yankees they give nothing away. You have to beat them, but I think in a straight-away test they have more and maybe a little better than the Cards.

I look for the Yankees to win it in five games.

Indians Expect Heap Of Trouble

By JACK STEVENSON

STN FRANCISCO (AP) — If Stanford can handle the Walkers Saturday the Indians may not have as much trouble with the runners and passers.

Rice comes to battle the Indians at Stanford with Malcolm Walker starting at center,, Bill Walker at left guard and Gene Walker at fullback.

They aren't related and hail from different cities, publicist Bill Whitmore told the Northern California Football Writers and Sportscasters yesterday.

Malcolm is a 246 - pounder standing 6-feet-4 and won All Southwest Conference recognition last year. Bill stands 6 - 1 and weighs 201 while Gene is 6-2 and 205. Malcolm is a senior, the others juniors.

And if you hear the announcer say Rice will kick for Rice, you're hearing it right. Larry Rice does the place kicking for the Owls who lost to LSU 3-0 and then beat West 'virginia 24-0.

"They'll present problems," said Stanford coach John Ralston of his approaching foes. In retrospect, he observed, "We played well enough to win against UCLA. We had 23 first downs and only had to punt once and still came out on the short end (27-20). Five times we were within the 25 and didn't score.

"It was the best offensive football at Stanford since I've been there. Quarterback Terry DeSylvia moved the ball well and Ray Handley gained 134 yards.

California Coach Ray Willsey sees a possibility of a victory at Miami, Fla., on Friday. But he had reservations:

"If we block better, take care of our quarterback better, and play some defense, we have a chance to win."

San Jose State beat Montana State College 20-14 in the final minute after recovering a fumble. A pass from Ken Berry to Bob Bonds brought the winning touchdown and Coach Bob Titchenal had compliments for each.

"Berry did a good job all afternoon passing and Bonds was outstanding both on offense and defense," the coach asserted.

Lester Wins By Kayo In S.F. Fight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jimmy Lester of San Francico knocked out Tony Noriega of Bakersfield, Calif., in the seventh round of their scheduled 10-round bout last night.

Lester weighed 153½, Noriega 152.

It was Lester's 14th straight victory and his 11th by a knockout.

Lester floored Noriega twice before the kayo, once in the first round and once in the second. The third time, at 2:35 of the seventh, referee Vern Bybee didn't both to count.

The scheduled six-round semifinal ended in confusion. Romeo Mendez, 158, of San Jose, first was awarded a knockout victory over Rocky Montalvo, 150, of San Francisco at the end of the third round when a doctor decided Montalvo was unable to continue because of a cut over his right eye.

Montalvo's manager, Joe Carlo, protested that his fighter had been butted. In a hasty consultation referee Tony Bosnich and Bob Turley, chief inspector for the State Athletic Commission, agreed that Mendez had butted Montalvo, causing the eye wound, and gave Montalvo a technical decision. Montalvo was ahead on official score cards at the end of the third.

In other six-rounders, Pepper Brown, 148, of Priest River, Idaho, scored a unanimous decision over Marco Spragio, 152, of Oakland, and Don Hicks, 132, San Francisco, won a split decision over Benny Burton, 132, Oakland.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

A Hot Line At Candlestick; Hey, Horace, What's A Yammy?

I wonder if Horace called Alvin collect? Naw, he wouldn't. Would he? Stoneham must have used the hot line because Dark got all fired up.

I know what happened to poor Alvin. He asked Stoneham, "Hey, H.S., what's a yammy?"

Franks is a good name for the new Giant manager. I just hope he's hotter than the ones they serve at Candlestick. If the Giants win the pennant next year they'll be calling Franks Mr. Bun-derful. He'll relish it.

By the way, Franks is from Utah. Just what the Giants need: Morman. Less boy.

Next September I can just see poor Herman answering the dugout phone to hear: "This is a recording. You're fired!"

Today's column is shorter than usual. Gotta run now. The boss is waiting for me on the other end of the line.

Booth Paces Padres To Pro Keg Victory

Young Terry Boooth, fresh off the Professional Bowlers Assn. tour, blistered the pins for a 1,149 five-game series to lead the San Rafael Padres to a 22-12 victory over the Fremont Pathfinders Sunday in the Western Pro Bowling League at Fremont.

Booth's series was the second highest in the new league. He garnered 4½ match points and 6 bonus points during his scoring spree for a total of 10½ of his team's 22-point total.

The newcomer to the San Rafael lineup fired a 266 game in the Padres' 1060 team effort, lines of 242 and 226 in singles action, and 213 and 202 in doubles — a torrid 229.8 average.

Dick Treadway helped out with an 850 series on games of 190, 224, 233 and 203. And Phil Wallace was close behind with 205, 227, 191 and 222 for an 845 total. Don Gee with 183, 195 and 158 and Larry Mar with 179, 211 rounded out the San Rafael scoring.

San Rafael now stands 2-2 in the league's won-lost column, two games behind co-leaders Stockton and Carmichael (4-0 each) and one behind South San Francisco (3-1). Behind San Rafael are Fremont, San Francisco and Santa Clara (each 1-3) and El Cerrito (0-4).

San Rafael hosts South San Francisco next Sunday, 6 p.m. at Country Club Bowl.

Wagner-Roche Win Net Match

Hal Wagner of San Rafael's Rafael Racquet Club and Harry Roche of Lagunitas Country Club defeated Paul Wilkins of Belvedere and Bill Kennedy of Mill Valley Sunday at The Meadows, Terra Linda in their special professional doubles tennis exhibition.

It was part of the Olympic Day fund-raising activities for the U. S. Olympic Games team.

GIANT RUMOR

Trade McCovey? Franks Is Mum

Herman Franks, cigar-smoking new manager of the San Francisco Giants, headed for St. Louis and the World Series today as his first official act as field boss of the Giants.

"I'm just going to look at the series," said Franks, who took over as manager of the Giants from Alvin Dark on Sunday night. "After that, I'm going to my home in Salt Lake City for a while."

Franks would not talk about possible trades that would strengthen the Giants. But United Press International learned that outfielder-first baseman Willie McCovey would be put up for bait in the hopes of obtaining a first-line pitcher or a shortstop.

McCovey, who clouted 44 home runs in 1963, hit only 18 this year and batted an anemic .220. Jose Pagan also had a disappointing season at short, where his fielding percentage dropped off with his batting average, which fell to .223.

President Horace Stoneham and Franks both have stated they thought they could win the National League pennant with the current team, which finished fourth—only three games out of first place this year.

But insiders state that McCovey will go if something of value can be obtained for him. McCovey, 1959 "Rookie of the Year," had several off seasons, then came on strong to tie for the National League home run championship with 44 in 1963—only to drop off again in 1964.

"After the World Series, we'll probably confer with the other Giants officials about any possible personnel changes," says Franks.

Meanwhile, he'll go from the series to his Utah home, where he retains a major interest in a chain of eight super-markets.

"I'll retain my home in Salt Lake City," he said. "But in the summer months will bring my family to San Francisco."

Does he plan to rest Willie Mays more during the season?

"Yes, I do," he said. "But we all say that, but we never seem to be able to spare the man."

49ers Followed The Script; Showed Power, Drive, Pursuit

Randol

Nine times out of ten when a columnist sticks his neck 'way out to there, he gets it chopped off at the shoulders. So pardon me just this once for crowing instead of eating crow over the San Francisco 49er 31 to 21 win over the champion Chicago Bears.

Obligingly, the Niners followed my script to the letter going for a 10-point advantage in the first quarter, improving their position, and then hanging on for the win over the Monsters of the Midway.

Chances are the 49ers will lose some more games this year, probably more than they win. The important thing is that Sunday they came of age and began to realize their potential.

For once, it must be recorded, fickle Lady Luck smiled on the Niners more often than she frowned. The bounce of the ball and many calls by the officials came at the right moment. As the man says, "The referee giveth and the referee taketh away."

BUT LET it also be recorded that it has been a long time since the Niners have shown so much power, drive and pursuit. All afternoon the defense was jumping to its feet to make the second tackle, and the offense was moving several tons of muscle.

With the exception of the third quarter, the Niners had control of the game. Quarterback John Brodie would have had a far better statistical record had not many of his throws been dropped. As it was, he threaded the needle to produce yardage when needed. During the third quarter lapse, rookie George Mira warmed up on the sidelines and that was all Brodie needed to get back on the beam.

COME THROUGH performances were commonplace, but special attention should be given to rookie line backer Dave Wilcox and the "forgotten man," flanker back Dale Messer.

Playing with the abandon of muscular inexperience, Wilcox shot the gap and brought down the opposition for yards lost all afternoon. Then, after putting on the goat's horns by roughing the Bear kicker at a critical spot, the rookie came back and smothered the next Chicago drive to turn the tide in the last quarter.

It was Messer, the little man, who went in for the injured Bernie Casey to keep the Niners alive in the final moments of the game. It seems ridiculous that a 5-10, 175-pounder should even be alive after four years in this league, but Messer was on the spot when it counted, taking pass receptions that maintained ball control for the 49ers.

ANOTHER MAN who must come up for belated praise was big, lumbering Monte Stickles. The veteran man-mountain made some key catches and also laid some blocks that made the wide runs and screen passes operative.

This was a team effort in spite of the individual stick-outs, and as a morale booster it was just what the doctor ordered. The Niners will win some and lose some, but from here on out no team is going to take thm lightly.

PAWTUCKET, R.I. — Li'l Edition, $24.80, took the Nantucket Purse at Narragansett Park.

Championship Sunday

The Novato Trap Championships will be held next Sunday starting at 10 a.m. at the Novato Trap Club, for club members and guests. Trophies will go to the first three winners in four different classes.

Tam X-Country Runners Romp

Tamalpais High School literally ran off with all the honors Saturday afternoon when four schools in the Marin Athletic League competed in a Stinson Beach cross country relay meet.

Tam's first team of junior Malcolm Collier, freshman Kim Carrig, senior Jim Lopes and senior Greg Sparks won first place in the two-mile jaunt with a 42:16 clocking through the surf of Stinson Beach.

Tam's second team and Novato's first team tied for second place and Tam's third team took fourth place. Other schools competing were Drake and Marin Catholic.

Foursome Wins Golf Tourney

Mrs. Robert Vannucci and Mrs. William Sichel of the host Marin Golf Club, playing with Mrs. Paul McArdle of the Meadow Club and Mrs. William May of Indian Valley Golf Club, won the best ball foursome Marin Women's Invitational tourney.

The four women combined for a 255 total in the tourney that was held Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Prydz Is Golf Winner

Mrs. George Prydz won the monthly club trophy at the Mill Valley Women's Golf Club Friday, shooting 76-15—61.

Winners were:

Trojans Drop From Top Ten

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hurricane Hilda didn't get north to the state of Michigan. No matter. The Michigan State Spartans and the Michigan Wolverines provided their own power on the gridiron and blew Southern California and Navy right out of the Top Ten in college football.

The Texas Longhorns retained today their No. 1 spot in this week's voting by The Associated Press panel of sports writers and broadcasters with a come-from-behind 17-6 triumph over Army.

But Michigan State upset Southern California 17-7 and Michigan walloped Navy 21-0 to give the Top Ten a thorough shaking up. As a result Southern California, No. 2, and Navy, No. 6, flopped right out of the rankings.

The new Top Ten is No. 1, Texas; No. 2, Illinois, No. 3, Alabama; No. 4, Ohio State; No. 5, Kentucky; No. 6, Notre Dame. No. 7, Michigan; No. 8, Nebraska, No. 9, a tie between Michigan State and Arkansas.

Illinois took over the No. 2 spot with a 17-6 triumph over Northwestern. Alabama moved up to No. 3 by blanking Vanderbilt 24-0 and Ohio State jumped a notch to No. 4 by slamming Indiana 17-9.

SURPRISE TEAM

Kentucky, perhaps the surprise team of the season to date, jumped from nowhere to the No. 5 spot with an 20-0 upset over Auburn, a defeat that pushed the Tigers out of the Top Ten. It was the third straight for Kentucky's unbeaten Wildcats. They previously downed Detroit 13-6 and Mississippi 27-21.

Notre Dame whipped Purdue 34-15 and advanced from ninth to No. 6. Michigan made No. 7 with its win over Navy while Nebraska came into the picture as No. 8. The Cornhuskers trimmed Iowa State 14-7 for their third in a row.

In this week's games involving the Top Ten, it's Texas vs. Oklahoma; Illinois vs. Ohio State; Alabama vs. North Carolina State; Kentucky vs. Florida State; Notre Dame vs. Air Force; Michigan vs. Michigan State; Nebraska vs. South Carolina and Arkansas vs. Baylor.

The top ten football teams with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

	W	L	T	Pts.
1. Texas (32)	3	0	0	430
2. Illinois (6)	2	0	0	390
3. Alabama (3)	3	0	0	366
4. Ohio State	2	0	0	263
5. Kentucky (5)	3	0	0	255
6. Notre Dame	2	0	0	244
7. Michigan (1)	2	0	0	243
8. Nebraska	3	0	0	68
9. tie, Michigan State		1	0	36
9. tie, Arkansas	3	0	0	36

STRONG REPLACEMENTS KEY TO 49ER SUCCESS

The San Francisco 49ers will probably have to finish the season without fullback J. D. Smith, the team's leading rusher for the past five years.

The club announced yesterday that Smith will be operated on later this week for cartilage damage to his left knee, and will be out for at least two months.

If out for the year, he joins end Vern Burke and linebacker Bill Cooper among those 49ers sidelined for the season. The Prospectors' great break so far this year has been that the injuries have come where the team has strong replacements.

He said tackle Roland Lakes played his best game since being switched to defense a year and a half ago, and he also praised linebackers Wilcox and Mike Dowdle.

Christiansen praised quarterback John Brodie and end Monty Stickles on the offense. He added that he liked the way Brodie kept plugging after his receivers had dropped several of his tosses.

The only casualty of the Bear battle was flanker Bernie Casey, who must rest a day or two because of a pulled leg muscle. The 49ers still hope he can play Sunday at Green Bay where he will be needed.

Raiders Shocked By Billy Cannon Goof

NEW YORK (UPI)—Ever heard of a coach who was unhappy at a halfback for trying to power for extra yardage?

Coach Al Davis of the Oakland Raiders said yesterday he "was shocked" at halfback Billy Cannon for doing just that in Saturday night's tough 23-20 loss to Buffalo.

Cannon took a pass with 18 seconds to go and ill-advisedly tried to shoulder for yardage rather than go out of bounds to stop the clock. The game ended after Cannon was tackled in-bounds.

Davis had some praise for Cannon's running mate, Clem Daniels, who showed his form of last year when he ran for 58 yards. "He was running hard and well," the coach said of his star.

Davis said the defensive line also had a good night, but sloppy tackling in the secondary "allowed too many short gainers to get long."

The Raiders take on the New York Jets Saturday night in Shea Stadium. Oakland will be looking for its first win after four losses.

Clifton Installed As Commodore Of San Rafael Y.C.

Cleo Clifton was installed as commodore of the San Rafael Yacht Club at an installation dinner for the club and its auxiliary Saturday evening.

Other club officers installed were Don Bugna, vice commodore; Fred Dittman, Rear Commodore, and directors Dutch Raggio, D. J. DeJarmatte, Miller McNear, Ed Gilchrist, Jim Corbett and Clyde Everett.

Marin Catholic 'C' Cagers Win

Marin Catholic High School's Class C basketball team remained undefeated in Marin Athletic League action Thursday, whipping Drake 53-24 on the Marin court.

Leading the Wildcats to their third straight win were Rick Garms with 18 points and Harry Matsinger with 16.

Marinites To Attend Series

By MOLLY MARIN

The John Davidsons of Greenbrae are leaving on Thursday to visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Davidson in Larchmont, N.Y. John L., a former resident of Marin, is art director for Young and Rubicam, Inc., advertising agency. He and Mrs. Davidson are the parents of John J. and Ann Ellen. The senior Davidsons will also attend the World Series while in New York.

A FIFTH daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burford of Novato last week, and the baby has been named Leanne. Her sisters are Lynn, Laurie, Lisa and Leslie. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chapman of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burford of Webster, Wis.

SUSAN DETWEILER, daughter of the John S. Detweilers of San Anselmo, arrived home yesterday from a summer in Europe and a stopover to visit with friends in Boston. She will visit with her family for two weeks and then leave for Boston where she is a technical assistant on the Apollo project at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Susan was graduated in June from Wellesley College with a bachelor of arts degree in mathematics.

THE HARRY CLAUSING home in Novato was the setting for a barbecue and swim party Saturday evening for members of Hamilton Lodge 751 AF and M of Novato, their families and friends. More than 100 guests attended the annual affair.

A SURPRISE bon voyage and birthday party was given for Mrs. Thomas A. Cuthbert of Fairfax, who is now in Hawaii. Her son and his wife, the Ernest T. Cuthberts of Greenbrae were hosts for the party at their home, and attending were her other sons, Alfred C. Cuthbert and Milton D. Cuthbert, with their families. Other guests were Mrs. Cuthbert's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casassa of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Serafino of San Anselmo and the hostess' mother, Mrs. Monte Button.

THE JAY KROETERS held an open house for about 100 guests on Saturday in their new home in Marin Country Club Estates. Mr. Kroeter worked on the basic designs of the house, which features exposed beam ceilings, lava rock veneer fireplace and resawn redwood exterior. Among Marinites invited were Alvin Goldstein, Neil Little, Mesdames and Messrs. Don Bradley, Jack West Jr., Bryan Rohan and Robert Carrow.

RETURNING HOME Sunday after a four week tour of Europe were the John P. Cunninghams of San Rafael, who flew to Copenhagen early last month. They stopped in London, Brussels, Heidelberg, Lucerne, Innsbruck, Venice, Rome, Nice and Paris and drove for four days through Ireland before flying to New York and on to San Francisco.

RECENT VISITORS at Del Monte Lodge in Pebble Beach were the Charles P. Cains of Greenbrae and the Robert N. Lees of Fairhills, San Rafael.

DR. AND MRS. Sherman Beers of Kent Woodlands, who have just returned from a trip to Europe, were entertained before their departure by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuehl, their neighbors, who were hosts to a group for dinner and dancing to honor the couple. The Kuehls also entertained a group of 36 guests for dinner and dancing the following week at their home.

NEW TO MARIN are Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Van Horne, who have moved to Peacock Gap from Saratoga with their younger daughter, Patty, who is attending San Rafael High School. They also have a married daughter, Gretchen. Mr. Van Horne is a vice president and manager of main San Rafael office of Crocker-Citizens National Bank.

Ross Volunteers Install Officers

The Ross Hospital Volunteer Service began its eighth year of service to the hospital with a general meeting and installation of officers yesterday at Sabella's Restaurant. Mrs. Allen Zeiss of Ross was elected president and Mrs. Walter Carroll of Ross, executive vice president.

OTHER OFFICERS elected were Mesdames K. L. Carmichael of San Rafael, vice president in charge of orientation; Herbert Schuyten of San Rafael, vice president of ways and means; David Sederquist Jr. of Belvedere, recording secretary; Robert Rodden of Belvedere, corresponding secretary; Edwin Christie of San Rafael, treasurer; and Elmer Martin of Belvedere, vice president for publicity and public relations.

MRS. WALTER CARROLL was presented the Outstanding Volunteer Award by Dr. John C. Siemens, hospital administrator, for her outstanding work as a volunteer and organization and operating of the hospital gift shop. Retiring president, Mrs. William Healy Jr. received a gold locket in recognition of her three years of leadership and service to the group.

GUESTS AT the meeting were Mrs. Joseph W. Incerti and Miss Marian Laycock, former members of the California School of Nursing faculty. Miss Laycock talked to the Volunteers about nursing scholarships on behalf of the California State League for Nursing.

One hundred hour awards were presented to Mesdames Oscar Baan, Andrew Gillespie, Robert Jackson, Tyler Seeley, Eric Pedley. Mrs. Jack Gokay was presented a 500 hour award and Mrs. George Sheppard was the recipient of a 1000 hour award.

Dibblee Home Locale For Smith College Club Tea

A tea for prospective college girls will be given at the Ross home of Mrs. Harrison Dibblee Jr. by the Smith College Club of Marin on Friday, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Invitations have been sent to all high school counselors throughout the county to be extended to those students who might be interested in going to Smith. Their mothers are also invited.

Slides of the woman's college will be shown and narrated by Mrs. Dibblee's daughter, Mrs. James Kirkham of San Francisco, a recent graduate of Smith. Other material, catalogues and articles, will also be available.

Hostesses will include Mrs. Dibblee, Mrs. Thomas S. Page of Mill Valley, president of the club, and Mesdames Thomas Drohan and K. L. Rice of Tiburon.

Mrs. D. M. Christensen, the club's vice president, will pour tea with Mesdames Robert Blakeslee, secretary; George Lindahl, Philip McCoy, Edward McCrum and Mrs. Virginia Rounds, all of Kentfield.

On Oct. 19, Mrs. Page will go to Northampton, Mass., to attend the college's annual three-day alumnae council meeting.

Advice Helps Car Pools Run Smoothly

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. (UPI)—Where no school bus service is available, a car pool in which mothers rotate driving youngsters to school is a solution that saves time and money for all concerned.

However, there are problems to consider if you join such a pool, cautions Norval P. Goelzer, senior vice president of an automobile insurance company.

"First, if you're driving other people's children in your car regularly, you should consider raising your liability coverage," say Goelzer.

He said that the $20,000 or so most people carry to cover personal injury claims can disappear quickly in case of a serious accident involving a number of people, especially children.

Medical payments coverage, a good investment anytime, becomes even more so if you are driving in such a pool, he added.

This kind of insurance pays for the medical expenses resulting from an accident, regardless of who is at fault, thus assuring that you can meet your moral obligation to the children you carry.

ANOTHER coverage especially important for pool drivers is uninsured motorist insurance. Available at low rates, this protects you and your passengers in situations where a motorist with no insurance — or a hit-run driver—is responsible for an accident.

In this situation, your own insurance pays the amount (up to the limits of the coverage) for which the person at fault is liable. In most states, this coverage does not apply to damage or destruction of property.

"These problems ought to be thoroughly discussed when you are setting up your car pool arrangement — it's not a bad idea to have a qualified insurance agent sit in, if possible," Goelzer said.

MAKE SURE the children know that whoever is driving is the boss; forbid rough-housing that can distract the driver.

HAVE SEAT belts in every car in the pool and make the children use them. This also will help cut down on horseplay.

KEEP YOUR temper and pull over to the curb to deal with any commotion.

FORBID ANY candy or ice cream on a stick concoctions that might hurt children's mouths or eyes in case of sudden stop or swerve.

MIX OLDER children with the little ones, and make the older ones responsible for keeping order.

Corinthian Plans Commodore's Luau

Commodore and Mrs. C. E. Wade will be honored on Saturday evening with the traditional Commodore's Luau at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon.

Mai Tai's will be served at 8 p.m., and a Polynesian dinner will be served at 9 p.m. Polynesian music, entertainment and dancing will follow.

Hostesses for the evening will be the Women's Auxiliary of the yacht club. Mrs. Allan Axford of Larkspur, president of the Auxiliary, has the Mesdames Wesley Costello, Charles Judels, Frank Sullivan, David Benson, Louis Riley and Emerson Best assisting with the decorations.

Marin Women

Salvage Shop Names Officers, Board Members

New board members and officers have been elected for the Village Salvage Shop in Tiburon.

Board members include the Mesdames Clyde Colombo, St. Hilary's Church; Hugh Laymon, Westminster Presbyterian Church; Frank Presotto, Reed Parents Club; Frederick Wilson and Robert Barth, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and Eben Rodgers and John Moore.

Karen Moore To Wed Ensign

The engagement of Karen Lois Moore to Ensign J. Richard McMichael III has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore of San Rafael.

The bride-elect is the sister of Francie Moore, a pre-nursing student at the College of Marin. Her grandmother is Mrs. Miriam E. Moore of Ventura. Karen was graduated from San Rafael High School, College of Marin and the University of California where her sorority was Alpha Omicron Pi. She is employed at the Emporium Marin in their executive training program.

KAREN MOORE

Rick, as the future bridegroom is known, is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Jack R. McMichael of Stockton and he is the brother of Mei Mei McMichael, a freshman at Syracuse University in New York and Bill McMichael, a sophomore at San Francisco State College. He graduated from Pasadena High School and University of California where his fraternity was Sigma Alpha Mu, and is presently attending Naval Gunnery School in San Diego.

The couple is planning a Nov. 15 wedding at the Kit Stewart Chapel of Calvary Presbyterian Church in San Francisco.

Two Will Attend Zonta Conference

Miss Virginia Shattuck and Miss Mary Fiedler of San Rafael, members of Zonta Club of Marin, will participate in the program of District Nine Conference of Zonta International to be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Bakersfield.

Enjoys Being A Grandmother

The Novamarin Grandmothers Club has elected Mrs. Arvid Burg as president for the 1964-65 year. She has also held the office of treasurer and vice president.

A resident of Novato for the past 16 years, she was active in the Eastern Star when she and her late husband resided in Nevada.

She is a past matron of the Elko Chapter, past noble grand of the Rebekahs and was active in the Daughters of the Nile and the White Shrine. She is a member of the Novato Garden Club and the Novato Shrine Citizens Club.

National Grandmothers Day will be held Oct. 11 and installation for the new officers will be held at Rancho Rafael in Ignacio Oct. 14.

MRS. ARVID BURG

The Novamarin Grandmothers Club has helped Marin Aid to Retarded Children, Guide Dogs for the Blind, Sonoma State Hospital and Alderson Convalescent Hospital.

Membership in Novamarin Grandmothers is by invitation and members must be a grandmother. The new president has 11 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Her children are Mrs. Martha Lawrence of Paso Robles, John S. Clark of Lafayette, George Clark of Reno and Mrs. William Ostler of Casa Grande, Ariz.

Serving with Mrs. Burg will be Mesdames Roy Huffman, vice president; Thomas Moscrop, secretary and Louise MacPhee, treasurer.

Studies Point Toward Finding Normal Emotional Patterns

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—Is it normal for a child of five to have frequent temper tantrums?

Can a seven year old with persistent difficulty in managing his frustrations and angry feelings be considered emotionally normal?

Hundreds of books, newspaper and magazine articles have been written on what is considered normal and expected as far as a child's physical development is concerned, but there has been little objective research and no means of measuring what is the normal and expected emotional development.

NOW, TWO SCIENTISTS at the Children's Hospital Medical Center, Boston, report that their long-term research studies point the way toward finding what is normal behavior for a child at his various stages of emotional development.

Since 1959 the work of Drs. Geraldine Rickard and Haskel Cohen, has been supported by the Research Foundation of the National Assn. for Mental Health.

A test developed by the Boston investigators to measure children's normal responses, in relation to their emotional development, has proved also extremely useful in indicating whether or not a child is having emotional difficulties and what these difficulties are.

"IT HAS BECOME a valuable aid in providing quick appraisal of a child's state of emotional health," Dr. William Malamud, research director of NAMH, said in an interview.

AS THE EXAMINER shows the child each picture, she asks him to make up a story about it: what he thinks each person is doing and feeling and what he thinks is going to happen.

Dr. Malamud said a child always is shown pictures of his own sex and approximate age so that his interest will be aroused more easily.

Educators in the Boston area who have used the test reported that they found it extremely useful and valuable, particularly in pinpointing those children whose emotional development did not appear usual.

DR. MALAMUD SAID the TED test will not be available for general use for some time. Drs. Rickard and Cohen must still organize a great deal of the collected data, write up the detailed results of their study, and then prepare the test for publication.

"ONCE THE TEST is available to the nation's educators, it is expected that it will be widely used in classrooms throughout the country," Dr. Malamud said.

Dr. Rickard explains that it is vital for the classroom teacher to have some way of measuring what is normal emotional behavior for the youngsters she deals with every day . . . and to spot the beginnings of emotional maladjustment.

Volunteers Keep School Libraries Opened At Noon

Sausalito's Richardson Bay School noon-time library volunteer program will begin the second year of keeping its two libraries open at lunch time for all fifth through eighth graders in the district.

Last year parents from Sausalito, Mill Valley and Marin City cooperated to make the libraries available to the students. The program will begin Monday, sponsored by the Richardson Bay School Parent - Teacher Assn.

District librarian Estelle Sutherlin acquainted parents with this year's library program at an orientation meeting Tuesday morning in teh school's fifth and sixth grade library.

Girls' League Events Planned

The Dads' and Daughters' Dinner is scheduled Oct. 28 with a Mexican theme. Committee chairmen will be Margie McLean, decorations; Cindy Stuart, foods; Charlotte Nelson, entertainment, Joan Taylor, serving; and Sharyn Bloom, clean-up.

Other events include a fashion show and the Christmas formal. Catherine Consta will be in charge of the fashion show in November. The Christmas formal will be held Dec. 18.

Girls' League also plans to sell rooter ribbons and cakes. Dianne Windsor is in charge of ribbon sales, and Janice Stackpole and Christina Bayliss will head cake sales.

Frank Scott is Rainbow Dad for the term and George Peeples is Rainbow Beau. A reception and dance will follow the installation.

Business Women Thought-Starters

Going to work plus keeping house really equals two full-time jobs—but if you apply business practices to your household operation, you can short-cut your at-home worktime without short-changing your family. Here are five thought-starters for becoming an "organization woman" in your own home:

1. Write memos, keep continuing lists for the grocery store, drug, department stores and milkman, then when you're ready you'll have the week's needs all in one place. If you can never find a pencil and pad try one of the magnetic combinations which includes a pencil on a chain and tack it up near the telephone.

2. Install a bulletin board in your kitchen area. If you don't have a special place for a board, use the side of the refrigerator. You can attach notes and lists to it with miniature clothespin magnets. Good place for appointments, family job assignments and shopping lists, too!

3. Keep all appliance instructions and information in one place even if it's a brown envelope in the kitchen drawer. That way you'll be able to spot minor repair needs as they occur, and also refresh yourself from time to time on caring for your equipment. This cuts down on service calls and on the frustration of inactive household machinery.

Another tip: Make a list of repairmen and services and write it on the outside of the envelope.

4. Organize your cleaning products to save steps. Put small items in a portable tote of some kind and include versatile products—one product that will do the work of two or three means less work for you. For example, a high-concentration pine oil cleaner will clean, disinfect and deodorize all in one operation. You can use this triple-duty product in every room of your house—even in the laundry room as well—as an addition to the wash water to cut down germs.

Duffy Will Speak

"Prisons, Prisoners and Parolees" is the subject of a talk to be given on Saturday evening by Clinton T. Duffy, former warden of San Quentin prison. The occasion is an 8 p.m. dinner party sponsored by the High Twelvettes of Marin.

Cocktails will be served at 7 p.m., at the affair which will be held at Dominic's Restaurant in San Rafael. Dinner guests of the club will be the High Twelves of Marin and friends.

Luncheon Set By Poolside

A poolside luncheon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Moynihan in Fairhills will be held at 11:30 a.m. on Thursday for members of the Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Club.

Mrs. L. Jerome Moore, district president, will be a special guest. R. S. Kupfer of the Marindale school will speak on handicapped children.

New Math Needs Prior Planning

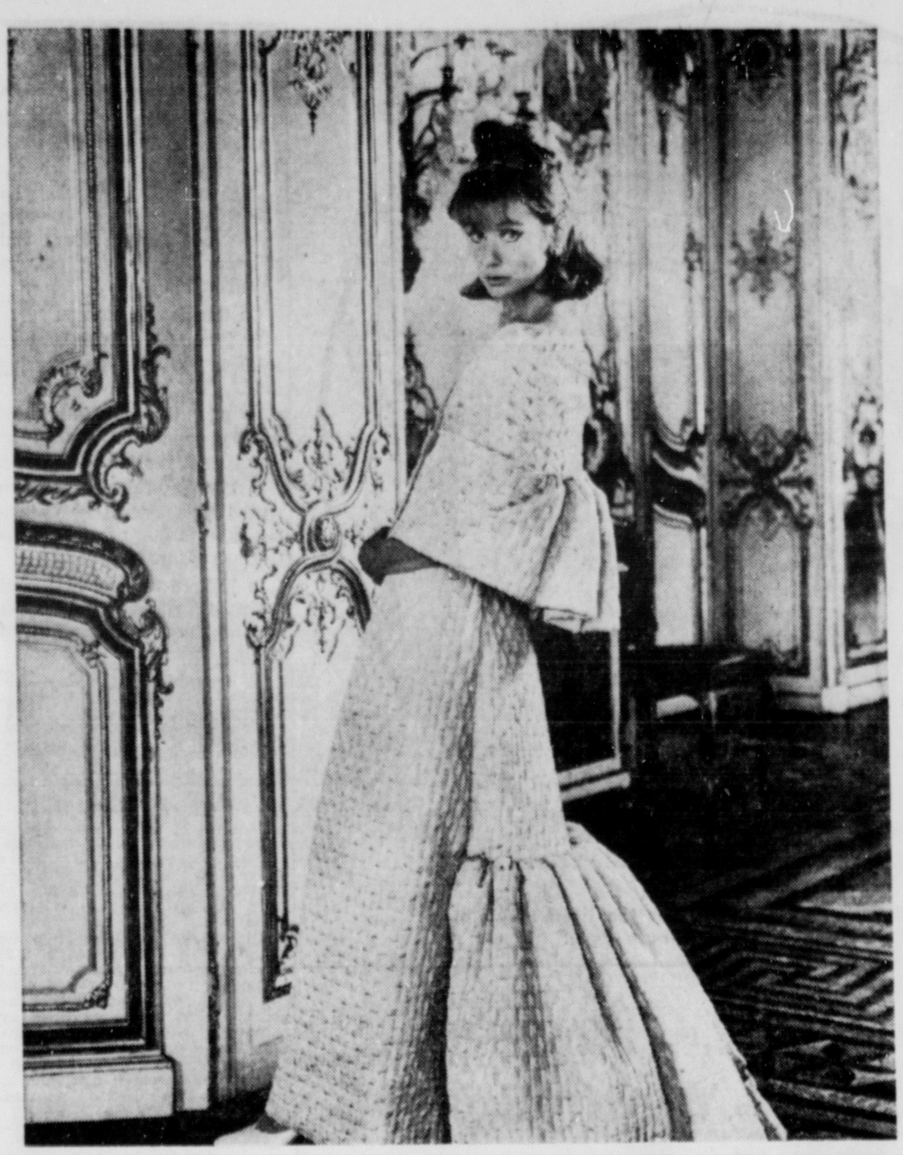

CHICAGO (UPI)—Modern math isn't a must for every public school today, says an educator and consultant in modern mathematics teaching methods.

Reporting in "The P-TA Magazine," Irwin K. Feinstein, professor of mathematics education at the University of Illinois, said there is real danger in rushing into a program of new math teaching before pupils, parents, teachers and the community are prepared for it.

One reason: teachers find that "even after a long in-service preparation, the new math is difficult and that their teaching function is different. More cooperation, planning and study are required than with a traditional program.

DRAMATIZING THE EVENING LOOK

Sumptuous colors and textured fabrics dramatize the evening look at Castillo. This elegant ball gown, left, selected for the Celanese Paris Collection in vibrant turquoise matelasse of Arnel triacetate and cotton has the new wrapped look. The gown has a deep, boat decollette front and back. The line of the skirt is straight in front with a short, bouffant, volant train in back. A deep bolero cape with twin rows of buttons repeats the bouffant effect in the back. Marc Bohan of the House of Dior interprets the new covered-up look for evening in an exquisite gown, right, from the collection of gold faille that has an elegance and simplicity reminiscent of the Victorian era. The flat line of the high-necked bodice falls a little below the waist to the graceful wide-sweeping skirt. Three-quarter-length raglan sleeves are trimmed with a wide band of white and gold crystals.

PAPER'S PROPER

Toss-Away Dishes Popular—

NEW YORK (UPI) — Paper dishes not long ago didn't get to first base with the etiquette experts.

Now, paper's proper, having made it all the way to home plate, cup,saucer and what not as a substitute for everyday and company dishes.

But some women, a little confused by the wide range of styles, still can trip themselves by selecting the wrong cup or plate to meet a specific serving need.

Although you can serve cold carbonated beverages in a hot drink cup, there's really no need to go to the extra expense. Besides, a wax-coated cup helps to preserve the beverage's carbonation.

ON THE OTHER hand, hot drinks must always be served in a cup designated for the purpose. As anyone who has tried it knows, the stiffness of a cold drink cup is largely provided by the wax and a hot beverage quickly reduces the cup to a limp vessel.

Here's a simple glossary of terms from the Paper Cup and Container Institute to keep in mind when shopping for paper tableware:

PLASTIC-COATED. A plastic coating sprayed or bonded onto paper cups, plates, bowls, dessert dishes and platters prevents hot foods gravies, sauces and beverages from being absorbed. Slightly more expensive than uncoated paperware, plastic-coated paper service is essential for properly serving hot foods and drinks.

—Uncoated. A specially-treated but uncoated paper used for certain types of plates and cups. They are less expensive than the plastic-coated ones. They are suitable for cold, dry foods such as sandwiches, cookies, cakes, cold cuts, fruits or cheeses. Uncoated cups are somewhat less expensive than plastic-coated ones.

—Wax-coated. The wax finish found on cups and dishes is suitable for cold food and drink only: soda, iced drinks, water and other beverages.

—Paper plates. Both plastic-coated and uncoated are available in six, seven, and nine-inch sizes. In addition there are circular, square and rectangular compartmented plates pressed or molded with spaces for individual foods and a beverage cup. Uncoated plates are suitable for cold cuts such as sandwiches or foods that are not moist or greasy.

—Paper bowls. Plastic coated, these can be used for either hot soups or hot or cold cereals. Salads and desserts also can be served in these.

—Paper dessert dishes. Mostly wax-coated for cold desserts such as fruits or ice cream in five or seven-ounce sizes. There is also a seven-ounce dish with special plastic lining made for hot vegetables or to withstand low oven temperatures. Thus, baked custards, apples and so on can go directly from oven to table.

—Paper platters. Uncoated, but rigid and specially treated for hot or cold foods, these are suitable for roasts or cold cuts. They are oval in shape.

Judith Arbini Is Betrothed

A champagne dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rinaldo Albini in Bodega was the setting for the announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Robert John Damazio.

Both were graduated from Tomales High School. Judith attended Redwood Empire Beauty Academy in Santa Rosa. She is the sister of Alan Albini.

JUDITH ANN ALBINI

Robert, the son of the John W. Damazios of Point Reyes, attended College of Marin and served in the U.S. national guard for six months. He is presently employed at Cheda Chevrolet Garage.

Robert is the brother of Lorraine and Joanne Damazio of Point Reyes and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ravani of Fairfax and Mrs. Ophelia Damazio of San Anselmo.

No definite wedding date has been set.

More Adults Seek Advice

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI) — Look who's going back to the little red school house — or the big glass and concrete one.

Adults. Especially adults who fidget about being in the right job — and others who are thinking of going to work but fog up mentally when trying to figure to what kind of job.

The National Assn. for Public School Education (NAPSE) says the shifting patterns of today's work world — resulting from automation and the diminishing number of low-skilled jobs — have brought more and more adults to the schools for advice on what jobs to train for.

If you're an adult who goes to the local high school for help out of the square peg in round hole problem, here is some information you would receive, says NAPSE.

THE COUNSELOR, after talking to you, would tell you:

Ten To One

It takes 10 pound of milk to make a pound of cheese, 21 pounds to make a pound of butter and 15 pounds for a gallon of ice cream.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

A nice doctor I know told me recently: "Of course baby care is a serious business but sometimes mothers take it too seriously. As a consequence, they often develop a kind of grim tenseness which is easily transmitted to a baby and the baby may develop a corresponding tenseness. The mothers who laugh with their babies, and at themselves occasionally, are the most successful ones."

•

Points to remember: Grim determination to see that baby "licks the platter clean" may turn a naturally eager eater into a mealtime rebel. Food served with a smile usually gets a good reception

•

There'll be baby-smiles to spare when the menu features a Gerber Strained or Junior High Meat Dinner. For these hearty dishes have 3 times as much succulent meat as regular combination dinners. Add to this extra meat, garden-good vegetables and subtle seasoning and you have "casserole dishes" with exceptional flavor character P.S. Apart from the eating pleasure your baby will have, Gerber High Meat Dinners are a good source of protein . . . the mighty "helping hand" of growth.

Super Supper Plan
(a la Gerber)*
Veal High Meat Dinner
Squash or Sweet Potatoes
Chocolate Custard Pudding
Formula or Milk

•

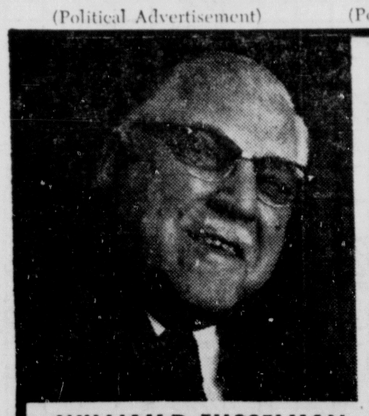

Strengthening influences. Overall buttons will stay put longer if you sew them on with elastic thread. Sweater buttons will be more secure if you reinforce thread at center of buttons with clear nail polish.

•

Start to finish. Don't forget that baby cereals provide special nutritional benefits right through the toddler stage. Gerber Cereals are fortified with a special kind of iron, easily assimilated by babies, plus calcium and important B-vitamins. All 5 are delightfully delicate in flavor. Today is Tuesday, Oct. 6, the 280th day of 1964 with 86 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter, Mars and Venus. The evening star is Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1955, 66 persons died when a United Airlines DC-4 hit Medicine Bow Peak in Southern Wyoming.

A thought for the day—Alfred De Musset said: How glorious it is — and also how painful — to be an exception."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Common Sense In Bridge Is Rarest Of All Qualities

The most interesting hands are those in which there is no need to make a weird or difficult play.

Opening lead — ♣ 9

When this hand was played, South won the first trick in dummy with the king of clubs and drew two rounds of trumps with the ace and king.

HELD BREATH

Fortunately enough, West had to follow suit. Declarer won in dummy with the ace of clubs and ruffed a club.

He next cashed the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart in dummy, ruffed another low club, and ruffed his last low heart with dummy's last trump.

HAD TRUMP

But now dummy was reduced to three diamonds and a good club. Declarer couldn't cash the club because West still had a trump. And if declarer led diamonds, he would have to give a diamond trick to West.

It was not a distinguished performance, and the only thing to be said for it is that West enjoyed it immensely.

South's trouble was that he got one trick ahead of himself. After winning the second club trick with dummy's ace, South must not immediately ruff a club.

TAKES ACE

Instead, South takes the ace of hearts and ruffs a heart. Then he ruffs a low club. He ruffs his other low heart with dummy's last trump and returns to his hand by ruffing another low club.

This sets up dummy's last club and puts South in his own hand—where he wants to be. He draws the last trump, discarding a diamond from dummy and cashes the king of hearts to discard another diamond.

Then dummy wins the last two tricks with the ace of diamonds and the good club.

QUESTION

♠ A Q 7 6
♥ 9
♦ A 5 4
♣ A K 10 6 4

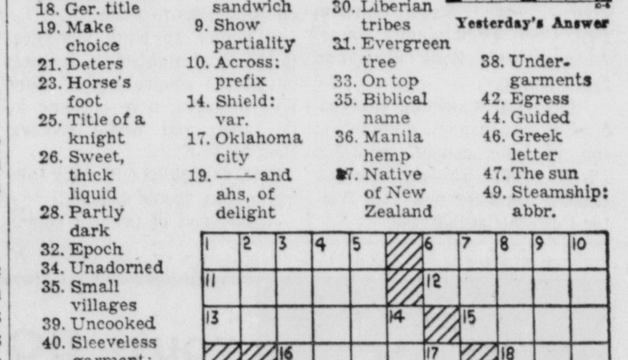

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs.

Avoid an immediate jump in a new suit when you have neither a very strong suit of your own nor good support for partner's suit.

FAST Insta-Brewer®
MAKES REAL COFFEE
IN ONLY 30 Seconds

(not "instant" coffee—real coffee!)
• made of Corning Heat-Proof Glass
• all stainless steel working parts
• guaranteed for 5 years

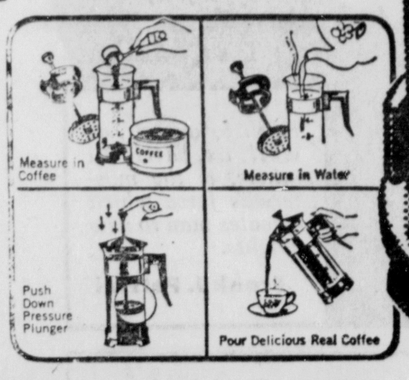

MAKES ONE TO SIX CUPS

NOW ONLY

Why does the fastest coffee maker make the best coffee? Because the unique Pressure Plunger (pat. pend.) forces all the coffee through all the water all at once . . . then cuts off the brewing process. None of the bitter oils have time to get into the coffee . . . none of the aroma has time to boil out.

Why drink "instant" when you can make delicious real coffee in only 30 seconds? You save coffee because you never need one for the pot. You never waste coffee because your six cup INSTA-BREWER can make as little as one cup of perfect coffee. You can make coffee of any strength. Stainless steel super-fine mesh filter is permanent (no paper filters to buy).

WHERE DO THEY COME FROM?

- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families in the Independent - Journal, COVERING 2 OUT OF EVERY 3 HOMES in the county.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED.
- In the I-J, your sales message goes where the GREATEST NUMBER of BUYERS are.
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON PRODUCTIVE AREAS.
- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.

- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, COVERING 2 OUT OF EVERY 3 HOMES in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED.
- In the I-J, your sales message goes where the GREATEST NUMBER of BUYERS are.
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.
- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.

Open House At Mormon Temple

OAKLAND (AP)—The new 7-million-dollar Oakland Temple of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints opened yesterday to the general public for three weeks of conducted tours.

The temple will be dedicated Nov. 17-19. The building cost 5-million-dollars and another 2-million dollars will go for furnishings and decorating.

The five spires of the temple are lighted at night, making the building visible for miles. A long rectangular pool and fountain fronting the temple should be completed before the dedication date.

Pupil Exchange Meeting Slated

There will be a meeting at the Marin City Community Lounge at 8 p.m. Friday of parents who are interested in voluntary exchange of pupils between Sausalito and Mill Valley school districts.

Exchange of pupils between school districts is one of the suggestions recommended by Dr. Wilson C. Riles, state consultant, in his recent report on how to reduce racial imbalance in the Sausalito School District.

Rep. Clausen Says Congress Had A 'Heart'

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) returned home over the weekend after the end of what he called "the Congress with a heart."

The 88th Congress adjourned its marathon, 21-month session "with one of the longest, finest records in history, especially in areas that directly affect the people," said Clausen.

"The tax cut, civil rights legislation, bills to make veterans benefits more realistic, a pay raise for all federal employees, major conservation laws to develop our federal lands for multiple use, recreation and beauty—all of these things in my mind qualify the 88th Congress to be known as 'the Congress with a heart'," Clausen said.

VOTE RECORD

Clausen voted for all of these measures except the federal pay raise. He was recorded against that, he said, because "the bill placed major emphasis on pay raises for congressmen and political appointees to government positions and not enough emphasis on bringing the pay of government workers up to the standard of pay by private business."

On the tax cut, Clausen voted against the original measure last year, but voted for a modified version of the tax cut bill in February this year.

"'In the past two years I have started a record of seniority effort and friendship with my colleagues," Clausen said. "I am well satisfied with this record although we don't always accomplish all that we hope to."

SONOMA OFFICE

Clausen said the two major failures of the 88th Congress were its failure to increase social security and to act on the Supreme Court's order to reapportion state legislatures solely on population. Clausen favored both of these items.

Clausen has now moved his congressional business to his "off session office" in Santa Rosa. He asked that constituents letters be directed to the "off session office" at 206 Rosenberg Building, Santa Rosa.

"The responsibilities of my office must continue during the election campaign. This operation will continue to be nonpartisan and will be completely apart from my main campaign headquarters in San Rafael and Santa Rosa," Clausen said.

Foreign Students Come To Marin

The College of Marin this semester is host to 17 new foreign students, representing 15 countries, bringing the total number of foreign students on campus to 42, the largest group in the school's history.

The new students are Monica Albrecht, Sweden; Eduardo Arregui, Philippines; Akiko Chosi, Japan; Eyon Correia, British Guiana; Mrs. Lydia Deinies, Argentina; Yvonne Gewalt, Switzerland; Helle Gran, Norway; Christine McKenzie, New Zealand; Marion McNaughton, New Zealand; Karla Maddox, Germany; Christel Ortmann, Germany; Aase Pedersen, Denmark; Jose Rodrigues, Azores; George Sakellarious, Greece; Orhan Terzi, Turkey; Mario Tirello, El Salvador, and Rita Yaghoubian, Iran.

State Pays Fees

Marin County has received $18,304.64 as its share of fees collected from owners of trailers by the state controller's office during the first six months of this year.

PLANNED IN TEXAS

School Designed For Academic Failures

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Plans have been revealed for a liberal arts college at suburban Plano designed for college dropouts, academic failures and students with neurotic problems.

He said Vice Adm. Harry Sanders, also at the conference, will be chancellor of the experimental four-year college, and it will open early in 1965.

"The University of Plano differs from all other universities because it is also devoted to the reclamation of potentially excellent students who have dropped out of other colleges and universities or who have failed to enroll for a variety of reasons more than basic capability," Morris said.

"A large number of such failures may be due to neurological disorganization flowing from seemingly inconsequential brain damage either at birth or later.

"The University of Plano will explore the causes of academic failure to determine if this is the source of difficulty. If it is, it may be remedied."

Morris said he and several other persons whom he did not name thought of the idea for such a school several years ago. He said their school is patterned after the Institute for the Achievement of Human Potential in Philadelphia.

The University of Plano has been granted an educational charter by the Texas secretary of state and has been certified as a private, tax-exempt institution.

He said the university hoped to start with approximately 150 students. Morris said university officials are in the process of acquiring a campus site.

Spending Surge Pushes Up Taxable Sales In State

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A late surge in spending pushed taxable sales in California for the 1963-64 fiscal year to a record 29.25 billion dollars, the State Board of Equalization has reported.

Chairman Paul R. Leake attributed much of the boost to consumers' response to the federal income tax cut of this year.

He said sales in the April through June quarter of this year exceeded those of the final quarter of the 1962-63 fiscal year by nearly 10 per cent with a total of 7.6 billion dollars.

Total collections from the state's three per cent sales and use tax amounted to 877.4 million dollars for the year which ended June 30. That was 72 million dollars, or nine per cent, higher than the figure for the preceding fiscal year.

Leake said sales in the final quarter of the fiscal year were up in 38 of the 40 retail sales categories for which figures are collected.

The only category which showed a decrease was plumbing and electrical supplies, which was two and one-tenth per cent below the total for the previous year.

Flood Threats In Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Louisiana, hit by its worst hurricane in seven years, stepped up efforts to return to normal today even while flood threats mounted.

Gov. John McKeithen flew on an inspection tour of several devastated areas yesterday and described what he saw as "a terrible disaster."

Hurricane Hilda moved up through the Gulf of Mexico and struck Louisiana's coast Saturday. Hilda and the vicious tornadoes she set off killed 36 persons.

Damages may run to 100 million dollars.

Another White Man Arrested

McCOMB, Miss. (UPI)—Another white man was taken into custody in a massive FBI crackdown yesterday on racial bombings and church burnings in southwest Mississippi. Such arrests now total 11.

The latest arrests by state and federal agents involved the bombing of two Negro homes.

Late yesterday, the FBI picked up Murphy J. Duncan, 44, an employee of a auto supply store here for the burning of the Sweethome Baptist Missionary Church on July 18, 1964.

Promoted By Army

Domenic T. Fasano, husband of the former Georgette Cheda of Mission Avenue, San Rafael, has been promoted to warrant officer in the Army. He is stationed at headquarters for Allied Land Forces Southeastern Europe, Izmir, Turkey.

Stiff Veto To Boardwalk Application

The Marin County Planning department staff blasted the Greenbrae Boardwalk yesterday as a "conglomerated mish-mash of zoning, health sanitation and fire protective violations."

Planning commission members heard the statement as they considered, then denied an application for an adjustment to allow Robert Cruickshank to have two buildings on a property which is zoned for one.

The staff reported that Cruickshank had been told of various building code violations on the property, including the existence of two buildings instead of one, and that following a letter from the district attorney the owner had applied for the adjustment.

The staff recommended that "petitions of this nature be denied" in the interest of orderly and well-planned growth and to dispel any appearance of "equivocal judgement."

The staff report continued: "Regardless of the inclusion of additional measures (in building and zoning regulations) designed for the betterment of health and safety, the Boardwalk area instinctively continues to be bypassed" and is "seemingly exempt" from such measures.

The staff asked, "Why should such a flagrance of restrictions (sic) be allowed there, when they are found nowhere else in Marin?"

The commission, in denying the Cruickshank request for an adjustment, ordered the staff to "take vigorous action" in correcting the building violation on the Cruickshank property.

Student Body Cards

College of Marin students purchased $14,000 worth of student body cards this fall, a $5,000 increase over last year, student body Treasurer Mohamed Hassan announced. The $10 cards entitle students to admission to school dances and sports events.

College Hootenanny

A hootenanny with the Wayfarers, sponsored by the student executive council, will be held in the new College of Marin Gymnasium Oct. 24, the first public event scheduled for the new building.

Adult Class Signup

More than 1,100 students have registered for adult evening classes in Tamalpais High School District, Principal James Fitzgerald announced today. Students are enrolled in 39 classes held at Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley and Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo.

Mid-Sized Cities Nearing Race Tension Peril Point

By WHITNEY M. YOUNG JR.
(Eighth in a series)

YOUNG

Public attention is so often focused on racial disturbances in Birmingham, Cleveland and New York that the growing problems of middle-sized cities have been dangerously ignored.

Negroes living in the ghettos of Dayton and Rochester can't ignore their problems. But the white public often does.

In our "middle-sized cities," the racial kettle is heating to a boil. While a small fraction of their white citizenry are outspoken for or against the rights of Negroes, the vast majority of white Americans remain silent.

The official, Paget L. Alves, observed the all-too-familiar conditions in the ghetto: Low incomes, high unemployment, low educational levels, and the vast stretches of slum housing.

In the past, the Negro community was almost too small to do anything about it. In 1950, Rochester had only 7,845 Negro citizens. Four years ago, their number was 24,228. By 1970, population experts say, the Negro population will reach 45,747, or 17 per cent, and in 1980, it will reach 75,350, or 31 per cent.

Yet Rochester's white citizens look the other way. The officials who make policy in that community have failed to do their utmost to make Negroes partners in shaping the destiny of the city.

However, unless they act, Rochester could become a small-scale Birmingham. So could Dayton, so could a hundred other sleeping cities.

Here are some things which these towns can do now, to avert racial strife:

Make certain that independent-minded Negroes are appointed to all boards and public bodies. There need to be Negro housing experts on those urban renewal and city-planning committees.

The "power structure" of the community, the business, clergy and professional and civic leaders, must be mobilized in behalf of equal opportunities for Negroes.

Businessmen have an obligation not only to practice fair hiring policies, but to distribute scholarships to deserving Negro youngsters.

School boards must adopt a no-nonsense attitude about racial integration. It's the law of the land. It's their job to see that it becomes the fact of the land. All children, black and white, must be brought up to the prescribed levels of national scholastic performance.

Middle-sized cities need some form of machinery, like the urban league, to help open clogged channels of communications between the races and to aid Negro citizens to obtain their rights.

Busy Week Due For Bridge Board

On Thursday at 10:15 a.m., the joint rules and policy committee and security committee of the board will meet together at 10:15 a.m. Then at 10:30 a.m., the security committee will meet alone, followed by a meeting of the building and operating committee.

At 10 a.m. on Friday, the entire board will hold its regular meeting. All meetings are at the district office at the bridge toll plaza.

Nature Group To See Tidal Life Examples

Ernest Braun of San Anselmo will speak and show slides on the ecology of the tide line at a Marin Nature Group meeting Friday at 8 p.m. in Room 40, College of Marin. At the same meeting Mrs. Ruth Shehi of Mill Valley will show her collection of pressed seaweed.

Sunday the group will leave from College of Marin at 9:30 a.m. for a field trip to Dillon Beach.

Swedish Student New College Club Leader

Ulf Jonasson, visiting student from Sweden, now living in Mill Valley, has been named head of the College of Marin International Relations Club, with Colombian student Margarita Estrada re-elected vice president and Carolyn Crawford of San Anselmo secretary-treasurer.

The club has set Sunday for its eighth annual outing to San Francisco, with the college's foreign students as guests for the day, topped with a dinner in Chinatown.

College Of Marin SNCC Sets Slate

Edward Collins of Mill Valley, son of state board of education member Daniel A. Collins, has been named chairman of the College of Marin chapter of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Council.

Other officers are Mike Sweeney, Kentfield, vice chairman; Judy Roberts, Lucas Valley, secretary; Allen Gotch, San Rafael, treasurer, and John Bright, Sausalito, inter-club council representative.

A fund-raising car wash has been scheduled for Oct. 17 in the parking lot near the cafeteria on campus.

Students Raise Funds For Car

BERKELEY (AP) — University of California students are raising money to repair a campus police car battered in last week's demonstrations.

It was the raising of funds on the campus, for off-campus causes, that in part brought about the student-administration dispute in the first place.

Youth Drama Class To Begin Saturday

The youth drama program sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department will begin Saturday morning, according to Edmund Mahany, parks and recreation director.

Mrs. Edward Weston will be in charge again this year. The program is for children from fourth through eighth grades. It will meet from 10 a.m. to noon each Saturday at the Community House. Three major performances are planned between now and June Mahany said.

Tiburon Planners Set Closed Talk

The Tiburon Planning Commission will meet in closed session at 8 p.m. Thursday tormulate a contract for hiring a planning consultant firm for the city.

Commissioners will also again interview representatives of one of the nine firms under consideration.

If agreement is reached, the commission will recommend a contract and a firm to the city council, which must make the final hiring decision.

City Atty. Peter Allen Smith said that in his opinion the closed session would be legal as the commission is considering the "terms of employment of a particular firm." The nine firms made their planning presentations in a series of open meetings.

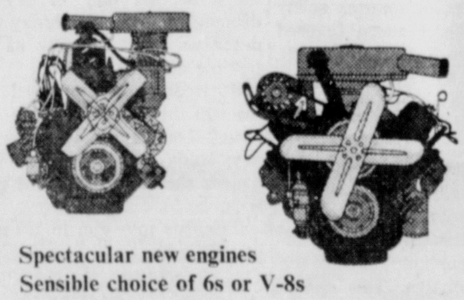

Year In Jail For Check Passing

A year's sentence in Marin County Jail and three years on probation was given Leroy Raymond Willey, 33, yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Willey pleaded guilty Sept. 14 to three counts of passing worthless checks, two in San Anselmo on Aug. 28 and a third July 20 in San Rafael. The defendant, of 744 Dominga Avenue in Fairfax, was arrested by Carson City, Nev., police while attempting to cash a check there, and was returned by San Anselmo police.
